NC A&T State University Galleries, 1601 E. Market Street, Dudley Building, NC A&T State University, Greensboro. Ongoing - The Matye Reed African Heritage Collection seeks to educate people about the culture, history and accomplishments of African societies and peoples of African descent. It achieves this through the development of exhibits drawn from its extensive collection of African artifacts, which represent a cross-section of African cultures from over thirty-five countries. The collection is made up of fine examples of African material culture including sculptures, masks, figures, household implements, musical instruments, and textiles. The modern collection includes works from Nigeria, Ghana, Ethiopia, Haiti and elsewhere in the African Diaspora. Hours: Tue.-Fri., 10am-5pm & sat., 1-5pm. Contact: 336/334-3209 or at (www.ncat.edu/~museum).

The Center for Visual Artists Greensboro, second floor of the Cultural Arts Center, 200 North Davie St., Greensboro. Ongoing - Featuring works by member artists from throughout the greater Greensboro area. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-5pm; Weds. till 7pm; & Sun., 2-5pm. Contact: 336/333-7485 or at (www.greensboro-art.org).

Weatherspoon Art Museum, University of North Carolina - Greensboro, Cone Building, Tate and Spring Garden Streets, Greensboro. The Leah Louise B. Tannenbaum Gallery, The Louise D. and Herbert S. Falk, Sr. Gallery, Oct. 1 - Dec. 18 - "2011 UNCG Department of Art Faculty Biennial". UNCG's art faculty is comprised of practicing artists who exhibit their work nationally and internationally. Their experience and knowledge in the field stimulate students to engage in their own aesthetic and intellectual pursuits. The exhibition features a variety of media (painting, sculpture, collage, photography, and video) and provides the community and UNCG students, staff, and faculty an opportunity to view new work created by these accomplished artists. Gallery 6, Oct. 13 - Jan. 8, 2012 - "Tom Burckhardt: Falk Visiting Artist". Burckhardt investigates the artistic process, particularly the dilemma of the contemporary painter, in his innovative and humorous works. His exhibition at the Weatherspoon includes Elements of a Painting, a large-scale wall installation that destabilizes the grand tradition of painting through the use of old book pages as a surface. Gregory D. Ivy Gallery, Through Nov. 20 - "Race and Representation: The African American Presence in American Art".

Featuring approximately 25 works by 15 multi-generational artists, the exhibition is presented as part of the Weatherspoon Art Museum's 70th Anniversary year showcasing its permanent collection. Weatherspoon Guild Gallery, Through Nov. 20 - "Fritz Janschka: My Choice: 'Joyce'". Fritz Janschka has been fascinated with the work of James Joyce throughout his artistic career. Likely one of the few people who have read the bulk of Joyce's work, Janschka has drawn inspiration from it to create paintings, drawings, prints and sculpture that are as fantastical, witty, and filled with sly social commentary as Joyce's writings are. The Gregory D. Ivy Gallery, The Weatherspoon Guild Gallery, Dec. 3 - Feb. 12, 2012 - "Altered States & Visions". The term "altered states" (of mind, of consciousness, of awareness, etc.) describes intense mental and/or psychological changes that cause the person to lose his/her normal sensory perceptions. Almost always temporary, these distortions can occur as a result of fever, psychosis, meditation, lucid dreaming, sensory deprivation or overload, and trauma, to name but a few stimulants. Frequently associated with being transported into a transcendent realm of higher consciousness or truth, the phenomenon often is associated with artistic creativity as well. The works of art on display in this exhibition not only feature figures experiencing such mind expansions and visions, but also depict the products of such mental conditions. The exhibition is organized by Elaine D. Gustafson, Curator of Collections. Bob & Lissa Shelley McDowell Gallery, Through Dec. 11 - "Persona: A Body in Parts". The exhibit explores alternate and multiple representations of the self in current visual art. Organized by Weatherspoon Curator of Exhibitions, Xandra Eden, the exhibition includes a striking selection of work in which the body, whether the artist's own or another's, becomes a surrogate, plastic form from which multiple and complex identities are projected. Artists participating in the exhibition include Barbara Probst, Nikki S. Lee, Carter, Kate Gilmore, Nick Cave, and Gillian Wearing. Atrium and Lobbies - Featuring works of art complementing current gallery exhibitions which are rotated in the atrium and public areas throughout both floors of the gallery. Tom Otterness' site-specific work, "The Frieze" is permanently installed in the atrium. Sculpture Courtyard - Featuring selections of American sculpture from 1900 to the present from the Weatherspoon Collection and on loan works from contemporary artists. Admission: Free. Hours: Tue., Wed. & Fri., 10am-5pm, Thur., 10am to 9pm and weekends, 1-5pm. Contact: 336/334-5770 or at (<http://weatherspoon.uncg.edu/>).

Highlands

The Bascom, a center for the visual arts, 323 Franklin Rd., covered bridge entrance at the end of Main Street, Highlands. Through Dec. 3 - "Ben Owen: Ceramics". Born and educated in North Carolina, with educational travels in Australia, New Zealand and Japan, Owen has garnered a national reputation as artist, teacher and speaker. The Owen family immigrated from Great Britain in the mid 18th century to central North Carolina finding clay suitable for continuing their European pottery traditions and Ben still carries on the tradition today. Honored in our own state as a "North Carolina Living Treasure", Ben Owen has also received the Governor's Business Awards in the Arts and Humanities. Owen's pottery can be found in international and nationally recognized collections, periodicals and multiple books. Current works by renowned pottery Ben Owen will be on display in the Loft Gallery. Oct. 1 - Dec. 17 - "Artists in Motion: Kinetic Sculpture". No computer wizardry here. This exhibition in the main gallery is about retro-technology to stimulate an understanding and appreciation of motion. Objects in motion can be interpreted on both the objective and subjective levels and may be about pure invention and joyfulness in the heart of its creator. These kinetic sculptors use a variety of materials and techniques to create one-of-a-kind works of art with individual characteristics which have a particular choreographic response. Children's Gallery, Ongoing - The vivid imagination of a child is the recurring theme for this gallery space and masterpieces by young artists from art classes at The Bascom, local non-profits and schools are on view. We believe in teaching the importance of thinking, creating, exploring and designing and in an effort to support these budding artists their works of art are displayed in changing exhibitions throughout the year. Drop in anytime and be inspired. Education Gallery, Ongoing - The Bascom offers our students and instructors an opportunity to display their creative works from workshops and classes. The perspectives of these talented individuals reveal self-expression, cultural awareness and technical discipline. These ongoing displays expose the viewer to the analysis, invention, exploration and decision making processes used by students during the development of ideas into a work of art. Bascom Campus, Ongoing - "Stick Works: Patrick Dougherty Environmental Sculpture". Internationally recognized sculptor Patrick Dougherty has constructed a monumental site-specific work using saplings as his construction material. Dougherty combines primitive construction techniques with his love of nature to build a one-of-a-kind sculpture on The Bascom campus. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-5pm. Contact: 828/526-4949 or at (www.thebascom.org).
