Drawing primarily from the rich holdings of African materials in the Gregg Museum's permanent collections, "MEASURE OF EARTH" explores the intricate relationships and meanings behind the patterns and imagery of West African textiles. The exhibition title refers to how African art not only serves to form visual links between local traditions and specific features and places in the landscape, but also to the geometric patterning that yields vivid visual energy to the textiles, artifacts and clothing that people wear. The word "geometry" derives from Latin words for "earth" and "measuring." Hours: Mon.-Thur., 9am-6pm and Fri., 9am-5pm. Contact: Zoe Starling, Curator of Education at 919/513-7244.

North Carolina Museum of Art, 2110 Blue Ridge Road, Raleigh. East Building, Level A, Through Jan. 26, 2014 - "Reveal: Portraits by Carrie Levy". Levy's portraits reveal everything and nothing at the same time. This solo exhibition features photographs selected from several series Levy created over the past decade and a half. Vulnerable, disquieting, and unsettling, her portraits explore the politics of representation: the gaze of the photographer and the subject of the gaze. Although she has photographed women frequently in her work, this exhibition presents male portraits "under the microscope of a severe female gaze," as Levy puts it. Works in the exhibition are selected primarily from her series Domestic Stages, Polaroids, and You Before All. East Building, Gallery 2, Through Jan. 5, 2014 - "Brian Ulrich Copia—Retail, Thrift, and Dark Stores, 2001–2011". Contemporary photographer Brian Ulrich's decade-long investigation of American consumer culture, Copia, traces a route from the exuberant excess of big-box stores to the bleak suburban landscapes of closed malls and empty shopping centers. The exhibition is divided into three parts, starting with Retail (2001–2006), in which Ulrich anonymously documented shoppers engrossed in navigating the abundance of goods found in vast enclosed malls and big-box stores. Thrift (2005–2008) focuses on thrift stores, the collecting places for discarded and unwanted consumer products, and its workers, as they tried to bring order to the overwhelming amounts of donated, discarded, and unwanted consumer products. Finally, in Dark Stores (2008–2011), Ulrich explores the impact of the 2008 financial crisis with haunting architectural landscapes of abandoned buildings and empty parking lots that have become commonplace in towns across America. Julian T. Baker Jr. Gallery, Through Jan. 26, 2014 - "Outsiders: Facing the Camera". This exhibition brings together works from the North Carolina Museum of Art's permanent collection that examine the forms of "otherness." Perhaps through an expression, a posture, or a feeling, these photographs document subjects who are, in some way, detached. North Carolina Gallery, Through Feb. 9, 2014 - "Close to Home: A Decade of Acquisitions". As the preeminent art institution of North Carolina, the NCMA is firmly committed to presenting and promoting the work of artists from our state. The exhibition includes paintings, photographs, sculptures, and mixed-media works acquired by the Museum in the last 10 years. The exhibition features work by well-known favorites such as Bob Trotman, Beverly McIver, and George Bireline alongside brand-new works on view for the first time by artists such as Linda Foad Roberts, John Rosenthal, Peter Glenn Oakley, and Anne Lemanski. West Building, Through Feb. 7, 2014 - "Masterworks from the Chrysler Museum". The exhibition presents a series of loans selected by NCMA Curator of European Art David Steel from the Chrysler Museum in Virginia. Interspersed throughout the galleries, 18th- and 19th-century paintings and sculptures by such masters as Edgar Degas, Pierre-Auguste Renoir, Francesco Bertos, Mary Cassatt, and Auguste Rodin are strategically installed next to related works in the NCMA's permanent collection, inspiring dialogue among the works. West Building, Ongoing - Featuring 10 additional sculptures by the celebrated French artist Rodin on loan from Iris Cantor's private collection. Ongoing - "John James Audubon's The Birds of America". The state has owned this treasured volume since 1848, but it has never been exhibited. Ongoing - The North Carolina Museum of Art has an outstanding permanent collection of more than 5,000 objects spanning antiquity to the present day. On the occasion of the expansion, the Museum has acquired more than 100 new works of art. Representing commissions, gifts, and purchases, the new works encompass important and diverse examples of historic and contemporary art from around the world, and will be installed in the Museum's new building and the surrounding landscape. Highlights include a gift of 28 sculptures by Auguste Rodin, and work by such internationally acclaimed artists as Roxy Paine, Ursula von Rydingsvard, El Anatsui, Jaime Plensa, Jackie Ferrara, Ellsworth Kelly, and David Park, among others.
