sity of South Carolina and a Doctorate of Education in Art from the University of Georgia. He is a certified Advanced Placement teacher and has received certification by the National Board for Professional Teachers.

Dwight Rose is a graduate of the Ringling College of Art and Design earning a BFA degree in painting. He went on to teach both in Ringling's degree and community art programs and VCU School of the Arts in Qatar. Over his 30-year career Rose has won numerous awards and his work has been included in many collections and exhibitions. He currently resides and works with his wife Ruth Beals in Spartanburg where he conducts workshops, exhibits and teaches watercolor painting at the Art School in the Chapman Cultural Center.

Work by Dwight Rose

professors actively mentor and challenge students through spirited discussions inside and outside of the classroom. The Nisbet Honors Program, Petrie School of Music, independent and collaborative research opportunities, leading national debate teams, study abroad and internship programs, and a 10:1 student/faculty ratio differentiate the Converse learning community. Converse competes in NCAA Division II athletics - the highest level of any women's college, is the only women's college on the All-Steinway School roster, and is consistently top ranked by US News & World Report.

For further information check our SC Institutional Gallery listings, contact Kathryn Boucher, Milliken Art Gallery Director for Converse College, by e-mail at (kathryn.boucher@converse.edu).

Founded in 1889 and located in the heart of Spartanburg - home to six colleges and 13,000 college students - Converse helps women develop the skills necessary to balance a full life. Students develop their unique voices through our challenging liberal arts curriculum, century-old honor tradition, and Daniels Center for Leadership and Service. Our close-knit residential community cultivates a spirit of sisterhood and enterprise among women diverse in backgrounds and interests. Across the board—from art and design to science, business, music and education—

If you would like to see your artwork in our gallery listings and you're represented by one of the galleries included there, send us a good image that is at least 3" wide by 300dpi before deadline.

The deadline each month to submit articles, photos and ads is the 24th of the month prior to the next issue. This will be Oct. 24th for the November 2016 issue and Nov. 24 for the December 2016 issue.

After that, it's too late unless your exhibit runs into the next month. But don't wait for the last minute - send your info now. And where do you send that info? E-mail to (info@carolinaarts.com).
