Greenville Center for Creative Arts in Greenville, SC, Offers Print Fair - Oct. 21 - 22, 2016

The Greenville Center for Creative Arts in Greenville, SC, will present the Contemporary Printmaking Collective Print Fair on Oct. 21 - 22, 2016.

The Contemporary Printmaking Collective (CPC) is a group of upstate artists whose primary art form is the hand-pulled print. These prints include etchings, woodcuts, lithographs, monotypes and monoprints and depict a range of imagery from realistic regional landscapes to colorful abstractions exploring movement and line. The Print Fair will be an opportunity to talk directly to the artists and to better understand the original work of art you are buying.
