Work by Monique Carr

Dare Gallery, 31 Broad Street, between Church & State Sts., Charleston. Oct. 1 - 31 - "Coastal Hues," featuring new work by Monique Carr. "For the past three months, I've been painting intensively with deep feelings of escaping reality by creating imaginative landscapes and seascapes. In my new body of work, you will see some pieces that emphasize the emotion in the clouds, while others express the abstraction of nature in a way that I have never done before. Some of these pieces, especially the ones with lots of trees by the bayous express feelings of being in the wilderness. When you come closer to the work, you will discover lots of textures, mark making, and a pop of unexpected color, that will leave you with an effect of surprise," says Carr. Ongoing - Located on historic Broad Street's GALLERY ROW in the French Quarter of Charleston, SC, the gallery features an extensive variety of fine art including landscape, figurative, still life & marine paintings plus exquisite pottery, photography, fine handcrafted jewelry, unique works in glass & metal plus bronze sculpture - all by some of the most sought after artists in the low country and accomplished artists from across the nation. Many of the artists represented have a personal connection to Charleston and the coastal Carolinas and tend to include pieces that celebrate the colorful tapestry of the southern coastal culture. Visit the gallery to see crashing waves, lush marshes, still lifes of camellias & oyster shells, coastal wildlife and sensitive yet powerful portraits of the south. Hours: Mon. - Sat., 11am-5pm. Contact: 843/853-5002 or at (www.edwarddare.com).

Meyer Vogl Gallery, 122 Meeting Street, Charleston. Oct. 1 - 22 - "Junk Drawer, an Art Show About Things." A reception will be held on Oct. 1, from 5-8pm. The group exhibition is a show about things. When we think of still lifes as a form of artistic expression, our minds often go to traditional flowers in a vase; fruits and vegetables arranged in such a way. "Junk Drawer" is a still life show for the rest of us. For the group exhibition, artists Nancy Hoerter, Glory Day Loflin, Lori Putnam, Dylan Martinez, Shelby Monteverde, and Marissa Vogl are finding inspiration in the random items and objects that catch their attention around the house or along the path of their day - the little nothings that, at just the right moment, are everything.
