developed by NAS Center staff and faculty and funded, in part, through a grant from the SC Arts Commission's Folklife and Traditional Arts Program, displays the portraits of Catawba artists and elders as photographed by Catawba artist Alex Osborn. Red Rose Gallery, Through Dec. 20 - "Unearthing Our Forgotten Past: Fort San Juan". Developed by the Exploring Joara Foundation as part of the 450th anniversary celebrations of the Juan Pardo expeditions through Western North Carolina, this exhibit showcases the Spanish occupation of Fort San Juan and the lives of the Native people who lived in the Joara area. In a virtual talk in conjunction with the exhibit on Thursday, Aug. 25 at 6 p.m., Dr. David Moore, Executive Archaeologist of the Exploring Joara Foundation, will introduce the exhibit and the excavations of the Indigenous town of Joara and the Spanish Fort San Juan (1567-1568), located at the Berry site, near Morganton, NC. Duke Energy Gallery, through Feb. 15, 2023 - "A People Once Lost, Now Found: The Sumter Tribe of Cheraw Indians". The newest exhibit on display at USC Lancaster's Native American Studies Center, highlights the arts and culture of the Sumter Tribe of Cheraw Indians through a display of photographs, artifacts, artwork, and more. Curated by members of the Sumter Tribe of Cheraw Indians, this is the fifth exhibit created for the Center by a South Carolina tribe or tribal group. Located in Sumter, SC, the tribe obtained state recognition in 2013. D. Lindsay Pettus Gallery, Ongoing - "The Story of Catawba Pottery". This National Endowment for the Arts funded exhibit traces the art, culture and history of Catawba pottery, the oldest Native American pottery tradition in the United States. Back Gallery, Semi-permanent Exhibit - "This is Us: Native American Studies". This exhibit celebrates the history and 10th Anniversary of USCL's Native American Studies, including artifacts and artwork from Collections, and a history of the building our Native American Studies Center calls home. Ongoing - The Center is 15,000 square foot facility in historic downtown Lancaster. Guests will have the opportunity to tour the NAS Center's gallery spaces, archives, classrooms, and archaeology, language, and audio-visual labs. Home to the world's largest collection of Catawba Indian pottery, the NAS Center will offer exhibits of regional Native American Art, classes and programs focused on Native American history, culture, archaeology, folklore, and language. Hours: Hours: Tue., Wed., Fri., & Sat., 10am-5pm; Thur., 10am-7pm; by appt. Closed Mon.&Sun. ## Mount Pleasant

Sweetgrass Cultural Arts Pavilion, Mount Pleasant Memorial Waterfront Park, 99 Harry M. Hallman, Jr. Blvd., under the bridge, Mount Pleasant. Ongoing - The pavilion is a tribute to the generations of men and women who have carried on this African tradition for more than three centuries. Kiosks and panels tell the history of this unique craft, and the open-air facility provides a venue for local basketmakers to display and sell their wares. Hours: daily, 9am-5pm. Contact: 800/774-0006 or at (www.townofmountpleasant.com).

Myrtle Beach / Grand Strand

Valor Memorial Park, 1120 Farrow Parkway, The Market Common, Myrtle Beach. Valor Park, at The Market Common, in Myrtle Beach.

Oct. 8 & 9; and Nov. 12 & 13 - "Art in the Park 50th Year" Waccamaw Arts and Crafts Guild will hold its 50th year of Art in the Park. We will have over 50 artists from the East Coast and as far away as Tennessee with about 15 of those artists from our local area. Typical art will include paintings, woodworking, photography, jewelry, fabric, glass, metal, pottery and stone. No admission charges. Child and pet friendly. Contact: JoAnne Utterback at 843/446-3830 or at (www.artsymparksy.com).

Work by Natalie Daise

Franklin G. Burroughs · Simeon B. Chapin Art Museum, 3100 South Ocean Blvd., beside Springmaid Beach, Myrtle Beach. Oct. 4 - Dec. 31 - "Natalie Daise The Greens In My Garden". A professional storyteller and self-taught artist from Georgetown, SC, Natalie Daise explores the continuum of storytelling through art-making. She uses various media, surfaces and natural and found materials, allowing her hand and eye to move a story into a place deeper than, perhaps, sound might convey – an exploration that reveals what may be hidden behind words. Oct. 13 - Dec. 31 - "Jonathan Green: Embracing Gullah Spirit". Regarded as one of the most important painters of the American South – in particular that of the South Carolina Gullah community – Charleston-based painter Jonathan Green (b. 1955, Gardens Corner, SC) is recognized as an iconic proponent of the arts, especially along our stretch of coast. Green's sweeping, dreamy Lowcountry vistas filled with bright and boldly patterned dressed figures in striking color combinations that hearken back to their West African roots have become immediately recognizable as painted by the artist's hand. Oct. 27 - Feb. 25, 2023 - "A Quarter Past: Highlights From Our Collection". A quarter of a century has passed since first opening our doors in June of 1997, and oh, the heights to which we have soared! Our first 25 years are surely something to look back on with joy, pride and gratitude – gratitude for our supportive patrons and visitors; for our beautiful, historic and homey building with our oceanside setting; for the amazing artists with whom we've been able to work and exhibit, and for the five extraordinary art collections we've amassed. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-4pm & Sun., 1-4pm. Contact: 843/238-2510 or at (www.myrtlebeachartmuseum.org).

Seacoast Artists Gallery, located at The Market Common, 3032 Nevers Street, Myrtle Beach. Ongoing - features the works of over 70 local artists of the Seacoast Artists Guild of South Carolina, a nonprofit visual arts organization dedicated to advancing excellence in the visual arts through teaching, exhibits, workshops and special events. Guild membership benefits include monthly meetings, programs & presentations; and opportunities to participate in Spring & Fall Art Shows and Web Gallery. Artwork includes oil, acrylic, watercolor, fiber art, mixed media, clay, metal engraved jewelry, sculpture, assemblage, and fine art photography. Art classes and workshops offered. Hours: Mon.-Sat., 10am-6pm and Sun., noon-6pm. Contact: 843.232.7009, e-mail at (seacoastartistsgallery@gmail.com) or at (seacoastartistsguild.com).

Newberry

Newberry Arts Center, 1200 Main Street location, Newberry. Ongoing - The Newberry Arts Center was established in 2014 and is operated by the City's Parks, Recreation and Tourism Department. In less than a year a solid arts program was established that includes programs for all ages. The mission of the Newberry Arts Center (NAC) and Newberry Arts Program is to provide quality arts experiences to all interested citizens and increase support for working artists while creating appreciative current and future art patrons by involving the diverse population and fostering local economic growth while enhancing the quality of life for all residents. The NAC also established and hosted the first ever South Carolina Clay Conference, an annual conference for clay enthusiasts held in Newberry each year. Hours: Call for hours. Contact: 803/597-1125 or at (www.NewberryArtsCenter.com).

North Charleston

Work by Susan Lenz

Park Circle Gallery, formerly the Olde Village Community Building, 4820 Jenkins Avenue, in the bustling Park Circle neighborhood of North Charleston. Through Oct. 2 - "Hagerty: New Works," featuring works by Richard Hagerty is a surrealist artist who has been painting fantastic, visionary worlds for more than 40 years. Often based on his dreams and fueled by intense curiosity, Hagerty's paintings explore manifold realms, including mythology, astronomy, anatomy, botany, history, philosophy, and world religions. His show will feature pieces from the last two years – examples of both geometric and narrative work. Through Oct. 2 - "Words Matter," featuring works by Chilly Waters. Fascinated by regional idioms and colloquialisms, clay artist Waters is a person who sees these cultural terms and phrases in his mind as literal representations of the individual components that make up the whole. His exhibit features works made of clay and repurposed "trash" that are whimsical 3D representations of what his mind's eye sees when he hears such phrases spoken aloud. Oct. 5 - 29 - "Inspirations from the Land and Sea – Paintings and Pottery by Gale Ray". Gale Ray of Charleston, SC, presents a collection of paintings and pottery that capture the beauty and essence of the Lowcountry. Oct. 5 - 29 - "Found Object Mandalas," by Columbia, SC, artist, Susan Lenz. The exhibit features common, household items, like paper clips, keys, bottle caps, buttons, nails, plastic spoons, old clock parts, and more, repetitively hand stitched into meditative patterns on sections of old discarded quilts. A reception will be held on Oct. 7, from 5-7pm. Ongoing - In addition to the monthly exhibitions, the "gift shop" at the North Charleston City Gallery, which features a variety of items by local artists, will also be moved to PCG. Cultural Arts will also continue to host art workshops and recurring meetings for art groups and guilds in the space once gatherings are safe to resume. Admission: Free. Hours: Wed.-Fri., 10am-6pm & Sat., noon-4pm. The gallery will be closed on June 10 & 11. Contact: 843/740-5854, or at (<https://www.northcharleston.org/residents/arts-and-culture/>).

Orangeburg

Cecil Williams Civil Rights Museum, 1865 Lake Drive, Orangeburg. Ongoing - Established in 2019, the exquisite ultra-modern facility displays 1000 images of the Civil Rights Movement, but from the perspective of The Epochal South Carolina Events That Changed America. The massive archives comprise the largest collection of images of this type among all museums in the United States; including the Atlanta based High Museum which archives 300 images. The images were created by the founder, Cecil Williams, who began photography at age 9 and covered almost all historically significant events in South Carolina; from 1950 Briggs v. Elliot in Summerton, thru the 1969 Charleston Hospital Workers' Strike...and Beyond. From 1955 through 1969, Williams was a freelance journalist for "JET" magazine. His images have appeared in thousands of magazines, newspapers, historical publications, and motion picture productions. The museum design itself is part of the founders' DNA because; upon graduating from high school, Williams wanted to attend Clemson University to study architecture but denied because of his race. He then purchased a drafting board and through the years, designed three residences; including one featured in "EBONY", and the museum's design which has evolved into a living history facility. Hours: call ahead for hours. Contact: call 803-531-1662 or at (www.cecilwilliams.com).

Work by James H. Green Jr.

Lusty Gallery, Orangeburg County Fine Arts Center, Edisto Memorial Gardens, 649 Riverside Drive, Orangeburg. Through Oct. 26 - "James H. Green, Jr: The Man and His Times". "Through the art presented in this volume, had it not been for the illness in his life, James could have been one of the most accomplished artists in this county," the author and photographer, Cecil Williams, once a close friend of the late artist, writes in the foreword to his book Timeless Expressions: The Rediscovered Art of James H. Green, Jr. Williams further writes that their paths to pursue the arts diverged when Green, in 1956, left his family home and life in Orangeburg, having been awarded an art scholarship from Ohio Wesleyan University. There Green would study painting and sculpture. The university prioritizes preparing students to become professional artists and proudly lists a roster of alumni recognized nationally and internationally. Ongoing - Featuring works by local artists. Hours: Mon.-Thur., 8:30am-4:30pm & Fri., 8:30am-noon. Contact: Vivian Glover at 803-606-7770 or at (<https://orangeburgarts.org/>).
