Highlands

The Bascom, a center for the visual arts, 323 Franklin Rd., covered bridge entrance at the end of Main Street, Highlands. Through Dec. 3 - "Ben Owen: Ceramics". Born and educated in North Carolina, with educational travels in Australia, New Zealand and Japan, Owen has garnered a national reputation as artist, teacher and speaker. The Owen family immigrated from Great Britain in the mid 18th century to central North Carolina finding clay suitable for continuing their European pottery traditions and Ben still carries on the tradition today. Honored in our own state as a "North Carolina Living Treasure", Ben Owen has also received the Governor's Business Awards in the Arts and Humanities. Owen's pottery can be found in international and nationally recognized collections, periodicals and multiple books. Current works by renowned pottery Ben Owens will be on display in the Loft Gallery. Through Dec. 17 - "Artists in Motion: Kinetic Sculpture". No computer wizardry here. This exhibition in the main gallery is about retro-technology to stimulate an understanding and appreciation of motion. Objects in motion can be interpreted on both the objective and subjective levels and may be about pure invention and joyfulness in the heart of its creator. These kinetic sculptors use a variety of materials and techniques to create one-of-a-kind works of art with individual characteristics which have a particular choriographic response. Nov. 12 - Dec. 3 - "Giving Trees and Nog Off". A reception will be held on Nov. 12, from 5-7pm. Join us for the opening of this event to vote for your favorite eggnog and get the first peek at these festive trees. Holiday trees will be created by participating non-profit organizations from our mountain plateau. You can just enjoy these inspirational trees or place a silent bid and take one home. All Giving Trees purchases will benefit participating non-profit organizations. Children's Gallery, Ongoing - The vivid imagination of a child is the recurring theme for this gallery space and masterpieces by young artists from art classes at The Bascom, local non-profits and schools are on view. We believe in teaching the importance of thinking, creating, exploring and designing and in an effort to support these budding artists their works of art are displayed in changing exhibitions throughout the year. Drop in anytime and be inspired. Education Gallery, Ongoing - The Bascom offers our students and instructors an opportunity to display their creative works from workshops and classes. The perspectives of these talented individuals reveal self-expression, cultural awareness and technical discipline. These ongoing displays expose the viewer to the analysis, invention, exploration and decision making processes used by students during the development of ideas into a work of art. Bascom Campus, Ongoing - "Stick Works: Patrick Dougherty Environmental Sculpture". Internationally recognized sculptor Patrick Dougherty has constructed a monumental site-specific work using saplings as his construction material. Dougherty combines primitive construction techniques with his love of nature to build a one-of-a-kind sculpture on The Bascom campus. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-5pm. Contact: 828/526-4949 or at (www.thebascom.org).
