a variety of media to explore themes of language, the body, and transformational experience. Her large-scale installation, The exhibit investigates the philosophical and existential conundrums of evil and underlying faith in the world. Gallery 6, Nov. 8 - Feb. 8, 2015 - "Ahead of the Curve: Selections from the Virginia Dwan Collection". Virginia Dwan is the former owner of Dwan Gallery (Los Angeles, 1959-1967 and New York, 1965-1971), a contemporary art gallery closely identified with the American art movements of Minimalism, Conceptual Art, and Earthworks. This exhibition will feature artwork Dwan donated to the Weatherspoon by such renowned artists as Arman, Jim Dine, Sol LeWitt, Larry Rivers, and Robert Smithson, among others. The show will capture the creative spirit of both Dwan herself and the artists she represented, as well as the extraordinary period of art making in which she participated. McDowell Gallery, Through Dec. 14 - "Art on Paper 2014: The 43rd Exhibition". Thirty-four regional, national and international artists have been chosen to present unique works using paper as their primary medium. The exhibit was organized by Curator of Exhibitions Xandra Eden. Various curators throughout the years have approached the "Art on Paper" exhibitions in different ways. This year, Eden chose to select fewer artists than in the past so that audiences would have the opportunity to get a more in-depth understanding of each artist's work. Artists were selected through a submissions process and by invitation. Atrium and Lobbies - Featuring works of art complementing current gallery exhibitions which are rotated in the atrium and public areas throughout both floors of the gallery. Tom Otterness' site-specific work, "The Frieze" is permanently installed in the atrium. Sculpture Courtyard - Featuring selections of American sculpture from 1900 to the present from the Weatherspoon Collection and on loan works from contemporary artists. Admission: Free. Hours: Tue., Wed. & Fri., 10am-5pm, Thur., 10am to 9pm and weekends, 1-5pm. Contact: 336/334-5770 or at (<http://weatherspoon.uncg.edu>).

Hickory Museum of Art, Arts and Science Center, 243 Third Avenue NE, Hickory. Shuford Gallery, Through Jan. 4, 2015 - "In Time We Shall Know Ourselves: Photography by Raymond Smith". In the summer of 1974, a young man drove an aging Volkswagen from New England through the South and into the Midwest, camping and photographing people and places along the way to California. The car died in Kansas City and Ray Smith took the train home to New Haven, Connecticut, where he printed some of the 750 exposures he had made with his Roliflex and Minolta twin-lens cameras. Few of these rare prints have been exhibited or published until now, the fortieth anniversary of Smith's trip. Coe, Entrance and Windows Galleries, Through Feb. 22, 2015 - "1944: A War, The People, A New Museum". The Hickory Museum of Art was founded in 1944; a time when the United States was heavily involved in WWII and Hickory was in the middle of a polio epidemic. Utilizing the permanent collection and borrowing artifacts from the Catawba County Historical Association and local businesses which also began during this era, the Museum will tell the story of what was happening locally and world-wide during the darkness of 1944. Regal & Gifford Galleries, Through Nov. 2 - "Margaret Curtis". Tryon, NC, artist Margaret Curtis presents her paintings as part of the Gifford Gallery Local Artist Series. The artist says that her work is "fiction but based on real-life scenarios." Gifford Gallery, Nov. 8 - Feb. 8, 2015 - "Oceanic Alchemies," featuring works by Ruth Ava Lyons. Charlotte artist Ruth Ava Lyons creates impressions of the natural world that explore concepts surrounding man's negative impact on the environment and its redemption. The effects of global warming creating endangered ecosystems and environmental degradation inform the imagery she develops in mixed media. This new body of work combines underwater photography with painterly handling and is a result of an artist residency at the world famous Heron Island Research Station on the Great Barrier Reef, Australia. Ongoing - "Glass & Pottery from the Museum's Permanent Collection." Mezzanine Gallery, Ongoing - "Discover Folk Art: Unique Visions by Southern Self-Taught Artists from the Hickory Museum of Art Collection."
