Simply Southern promises to highlight the uniqueness of the Lowcountry and our island. Where else in the world can you see marshes, beaches, oysters, historical sites, majestic live oaks all on one 42 square mile island? Crawford's exhibit will show a variety of media. "Flowers work best for me in watercolor. My 'big sky' paintings are best in acrylic. Also, included in this show will be some food paintings that will be a bit

Hampton III Gallery in Greenville, SC, Features Works by Tom Stanley

Hampton III Gallery in Greenville, SC, will present Structures, featuring paintings by Tom Stanley, on view from Nov. 15 through Dec. 31, 2018. A reception will be held on Nov. 15, from 7-9pm. At 8pm that evening the artist will briefly discuss his work.

This is Hampton III Gallery's second solo exhibition of Stanley's work.

Stanley is a visual artist who grew up in North Carolina and has lived in Rock Hill, South Carolina for the past 28 years. Early on he worked in New Jersey and New York in what might be called the wall accessory industry. After earning an MA in Applied Art History and an MFA in Painting from the University of South Carolina in 1980, he served on the faculties of Arkansas College (now Lyon College) in Batesville, Arkansas and Barry University in Miami, Florida. In 1985 he returned to North Carolina to direct the Waterworks Visual Arts Center in Salisbury. He became the first director of Rock Hill's Winthrop University Galleries in 1990. From 2007 to 2017 he served as chair
