Hilton Head Island Area

Art League of Hilton Head Gallery, at the Arts Center of Coastal Carolina, 14 Shelter Cove Lane, Hilton Head Island. Through Nov. 3 - "Magic," an exhibit of works by sixteen talented instructors who teach at Art League Academy. "The artist is in all of us! Our innate creativity may be untapped, yet an inspiring teacher can bring it forth. The art studio is where we all can truly let go, play and find the joy that comes with art making—and when that happens, it really does feel like magic" says instructor Alexandra Sharma. Nov. 6 - Dec. 1 - "Remember What You Like About the South," featuring works by Margaret Crawford. A reception will be held on Nov. 7, from 5-7pm. What do you like about the South? For Crawford, she can remember the salty air and peacefulness since the late 70's. Before becoming a Lowcountry resident, Crawford studied at the Pittsburgh Art Institute, Carnegie Mellon University and The Art Students League in New York City. With over twenty solo exhibits on her resume, you do not want to miss this exhibit and its ode to the South. Hours: Mon.-Sat., 10am-4pm. Contact: 843/681-5060 or at (www.artleaguehi.org).

Coastal Discovery Museum at Honey Horn, off Highway 278, across from Gumtree Road, Hilton Head Island. Museum Grounds, Through Jan. 25, 2019 - "Public Art Tours at Coastal Discovery Museum". The Coastal Discovery Museum will conduct docent-led tours of the 19 outdoor sculptures on site for the "2018 Public Art Exhibition". The tours will run every Friday through January 25. The Community Foundation of the Lowcountry's Hilton Head Island Public Art Committee sponsors this exhibition every two years. The first exhibit was held in 2011. Each year, hundreds of sculptors compete to be included in this exhibition. Each sculpture selected for the exhibit was placed in a specific location on the historic Honey Horn property – to complement its materials, subject matter or scale. You may also vote for your favorite piece of sculpture at (www.hhipublicart.org). The tours are $10 per person and reservations are requested by calling 843/689-6767 ext 223.

Hilton Head Regional Healthcare Gallery, Coastal Discovery Museum, at Honey Horn, off Highway 278, across from Gumtree Road, Hilton Head Island. Through Dec. 31 - "Daufuskie Island". Hilton Head Island's neighbor to the south is Daufuskie Island. The southernmost point of South Carolina, Daufuskie Island is nestled between Mungen Creek, the New River, the Cooper River and Calibogue Sound. No bridge connects the island to the mainland. Living on Daufuskie has inspired woodworkers, writers, weavers, painters, potters, photographers, rum distillers, indigo dyers, sculptors, and soap makers. Join us at the Coastal Discovery Museum to explore the varied talents of these Daufuskie Island residents. Nov. 20, from 10am-1pm - "Holiday Market". Roland Washington from "We Island" will feature his gumbo and offer samples for tasting and purchase. Food samplings from Lowcountry Produce will be available for purchase as well. A sweetgrass basket display and demonstration will feature local Gullah islanders. Other local artists will include Gillian Horsley with nature themed gifts, Marquita Willis with Gullah Art and Rose Willis with jewelry. Ongoing - This beautiful 69-acre site will serve as the Museum's base for programs highlighting the cultural heritage and natural history of the Lowcountry. And, it will provide a signature venue for community events for people of all ages. The opening includes the renovation of a 6,000 sq. foot former hunting retreat, renamed the "Discovery House," containing the Museum's new interactive exhibits, temporary gallery space and community meeting rooms. Work by Sherry Syrickland Martin

Franklin G. Burroughs • Simeon B. Chapin Art Museum, 3100 South Ocean Blvd., beside Springmaid Beach, Myrtle Beach. Through Dec. 16 - "Roots Run Deep," featuring works by Sherry Strickland Martin. Artist and South Carolina native Sherry Strickland Martin spent much of her career creating images for commercial products such as housewares, notecards, fabric designs and sports artwork. But a bout with breast cancer led her to relocate from Hilton Head Island to Myrtle Beach to be near family, to teach and to return to the traditional watercolors and mixed media work with which she began her career as an artist. Through Dec. 16 - "RootWork," featuring an exhibit of photographs by Talbot Easton Selby. Born and raised in central Mississippi, photographer Talbot Easton Selby grew up with an extended family of storytellers, artists and musicians. His work has been influenced by the places, folklore and by the religious and mystical heritage of the South - a region he says he has "tried to escape, but the South will not let me go." Through May 31, 2019 - "Collection Connections I A Visual Exploration of Southern Heritage," an exhibition of approximately 40 works from the Art Museum's rich permanent collections, including antique maps and historical prints, works on paper by Southern artists, including William H. Clarke, Cassandra Gillens and Jonathan Green, fabric quilts and photographs. Using Southern-history-themed works of art from our collections, the exhibition uses the visual arts to teach and explore the history and culture of South Carolina and our entire region and is designed for both school students and adults alike. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-4pm & Sun., 1-4pm. Contact:
