of the Permanent Collection". The exhibition features paintings and sculpture from the permanent collection that show how artists repeatedly have looked to the natural world and human form for inspiration, but have abstracted it to varying degrees for distinct expressive goals. From looking to impressionist, cubist, and surrealist models to using the materials of artmaking itself for dramatic purposes, the artists here convey the dynamism that results from seeing the familiar in new configurations and through innovative lens. The Leah Louise B. Tannenbaum Gallery, Through Dec. 9 - "Catherine Murphy: Falk Visiting Artist". Catherine Murphy's work requires close looking and contemplation. Painting from life, Murphy uses color, form and light to create paintings that challenge our skills of perception at the same time that they suggest intriguing narratives. With simple and everyday subjects, the artist generates unexpected journeys of discovery. The Louise D. and Herbert S. Falk, Sr. Gallery, Through Dec. 19 - "Juan Logan: Without Stopping". North Carolina artist Juan Logan presents new and recent work in his first solo show at the Weatherspoon Art Museum. The exhibition includes "Sugar House" (2010), a large-scale, 16 x 9 ft. work that uses puzzle pieces and imagery such as water mills and prize rings to critique the banking and health care industries, as well as a number of mixed media collages and works on paper. Bob & Lissa Shelley McDowell Gallery, Through Jan. 13, 2013 - "Art on Paper 2012: The 42nd Exhibition". The exhibition features regional, national and international artists who have produced significant works made on or of paper. Sixty-five artists were selected through submissions and by invitation. As a special feature this year, Curator of Exhibitions Xandra Eden formed an advisory committee of artists whose work was presented in Art on Paper (AOP) 2006, 2008, or 2010 to select the invitational portion of the exhibition. The committee includes: Tomory Dodge (AOP '08), Franklin Evans (AOP '06), Jiha Moon (AOP '08), Frank Selby (AOP '10), and Stacy Lynn Waddell (AOP '08). Each of these artists nominated five other artists to participate in this year's biennial. Gallery 6, Through Feb. 17, 2013 - "The Cone Sisters Collect." The Weatherspoon Art Museum first began collecting works of art in the 1940s, and received an astonishing bounty in 1950 when Etta Cone bequeathed part of her and her sister Claribel's collection to the museum. The Weatherspoon was the beneficiary of a gift of 242 objects including work by Raoul Dufy, John Graham, Marie Laurencin, Henri Matisse, Pablo Picasso, and Jacques Villon, among others. Part of this vanguard collection will be on view this fall and winter as a complement to the exhibition, "Collecting Matisse and Modern Masters: The Cone Sisters of Baltimore," on view at the Nasher Museum of Art at Duke University from Nov. 4, 2012 through Feb. 10, 2013. The exhibition is organized by Elaine D. Gustafson, Curator of Collections. Atrium and Lobbies - Featuring works of art complementing current gallery exhibitions which are rotated in the atrium and public areas throughout both floors of the gallery. Tom Otterness' site-specific work, "The Frieze" is permanently installed in the atrium. Sculpture Courtyard - Featuring selections of American sculpture from 1900 to the present from the Weatherspoon Collection and on loan works from contemporary artists. ## Highlands

The Bascom, a center for the visual arts, 323 Franklin Rd., covered bridge entrance at the end of Main Street, Highlands. Bunzl Gallery, Through Dec. 29 - "American Craft Today". This prestigious, juried exhibition of fine craft includes one-of-a-kind pieces, and uniquely creative artwork will be featured. Approximately 50 craftspeople will be selected from across the nation to exhibit baskets, ceramics, decorative and wearable fiber, furniture, glass, jewelry, leather, metal, mixed media, paper and wood craft objects created by some of America's most skilled and visionary artists. This year's juror is Mark Leach, the Executive Director of The Southeastern Center for Contemporary Art. Loft Gallery, Through Jan. 4, 2013 - "In These Mountains". Living on a mountain plateau in Western North Carolina is inspirational to many creative and talented individuals. We are proud to share the gifts of our neighbors. Artists within a 35 mile range of our Art Center are invited to submit proposals for an exhibition to fill our Loft Gallery. It is with great pleasure that we showcase these outstanding visual artists. The Terrace and The Atrium, Through Dec. 31 - "Giving Trees". The Bascom launches its holiday celebration by hosting "Giving Trees" to bring attention to all the non-profits on the plateau and to give our visitors an opportunity to donate to multiple organizations. On Nov. 17, guests are invited to preview "Giving Trees" and participate in a little friendly competition and the sharing of family recipes during our annual Nog Off. A toast to friends, family and community! Ongoing - The vivid imagination of a child is the recurring theme for this gallery space and masterpieces by young artists from art classes at The Bascom, local non-profits and schools are on view. We believe in teaching the importance of thinking, creating, exploring and designing and in an effort to support these budding artists their works of art are displayed in changing exhibitions throughout the year. Drop in anytime and be inspired. Education Gallery, Ongoing - The Bascom offers our students and instructors an opportunity to display their creative works from workshops and classes. The perspectives of these talented individuals reveal self-expression, cultural awareness and technical discipline. These ongoing displays expose the viewer to the analysis, invention, exploration and decision making processes used by students during the development of ideas into a work of art. Bascom Campus, Ongoing - "Stick Works: Patrick Dougherty Environmental Sculpture". Internationally recognized sculptor Patrick Dougherty has constructed a monumental site-specific work using saplings as his construction material. Dougherty combines primitive construction techniques with his love of nature to build a one-of-a-kind sculpture on The Bascom campus. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-5pm. Goode is a figurative artist and says about her work, "My recent paintings developed from a growing sense of my own age and strength. As my work began to change, the women became more powerful but more subtle at the same time, sometimes vulnerable, but more often with the strength to transport them to other worlds." Phillips, who focuses on portrait work, says, "In my work, I try to raise "uniformity" to the level of "community". I create visual communities that are built around one common point—a uniform, a facial expression, the direction of someone's gaze. I create a thematic space where very different people can dwell together, just as we do when we live in an apartment building or work in the same office complex." Hours: Tue.-Sat., noon-5pm.
