Clover

Gallery 120, 120 Bethel Street, Clover. Ongoing - Established in January 2015, Gallery 120 was created as a community art gallery with a mission to build a strong vibrant Arts community and encourage growth and exposure of professional and emerging artists while educating our community in the Fine Arts. Gallery 120 is a center where partnerships with other art groups serve as an opportunity for community involvement and showcase a variety of artwork, with a special focus on student art. Gallery 120 exhibits change monthly with professional and student artists. The gallery also offers a First Friday public art reception, held on the first Friday of every month from 6-8pm. We exhibit artwork created by artists who are professional and whose works are exceptional in skill and presentation. We showcase student artwork crafted by students in our schools, from the elementary level through high school level. The gallery also showcases works of emerging artists, whether they are hobbyists in drawing or painting or some other fine art medium. Hours: Mon.-Fri., 8am-5pm. Contact: 803/222-9493 or at (www.Clovergallery120.org).

Columbia Area

Elizabeth Catlett (American, 1915–2012). "Roots", 1981. Mixed media, edition 12/110. © 2022 Mora-Catlett Family / Licensed by VAGA at Artists Rights Society (ARS), NY.

Columbia Museum of Art, Main & Hampton Streets, Columbia. Through Jan. 1, 2023 - "European Splendors: Highlights from the Kress Collection". The exhibition offers a chance to re-experience the CMA's Kress Collection - largely off view since 2017 - in a luxurious new way. Featuring an exciting arc of Italian art from the late medieval to the Baroque period shown alongside apothecary mortars and furniture pieces, this exhibition explores the renewed emphasis on the human condition and individualism within religious art and culminates in stunning examples of Dutch portraiture and still life. Italian landscapes by Bernardo Bellotto and Giovanni Paolo Pannini illustrate the impulse to bring a piece of history home from one's Grand Tour as well as the 18th-century mania for Greco-Roman ruins. Through Jan. 22, 2023 - "The Art of Elizabeth Catlett: From the Collection of Samella Lewis". This exhibition featuring 30 prints and sculptures celebrates artist Elizabeth Catlett and honors a half-century of her artistic activism in support of women, African Americans, and Mexican laborers. Using a stylized Modernist approach to figurative works, Catlett addresses themes including Black identity, motherhood, civil rights, and labor in this exhibition - issues she tackled with more freedom by emigrating permanently to Mexico in 1947. Through Apr. 2, 2023 - "Forward Together: African American Art from the Judy and Patrick Diamond Collection". This exhibition highlights a selection of works by African American artists, drawn from the esteemed collection of Judy and Patrick Diamond. Patrick was born in the community of Frogtown, a historically segregated neighborhood in Columbia, SC.

He attended Saint Martin de Porres Elementary School before moving north with his family. While a student at Boston University, he met his future wife, Judy, and their mutual interest in art blossomed. For more than 40 years, the Diamonds have shared a passion for collecting some of the most significant African American artists of the 20th century. The works on view here - by artists such as Benny Andrews, Romare Bearden, and Jacob Lawrence - touch on a variety of themes relating to African American life, history, and humanity. Through Jan. 1, 2025 - "The Collection". Come see the newly organized collection. We've gathered ancient and modern works of art, together in one space, that explore our shared archetypes, myths, and ideals. Galleries 5 & 6, Ongoing - "Modern & Contemporary Art from the Collection". Celebrating some of the CMA's greatest hits, this exhibition features over 30 paintings, drawings, photographs and sculptures from the Museum's collection that have not been on view recently. It offers the visitor experiences both serious and sensual and is designed to both entertain and enlighten. Notable works included are by Jasper Johns, Howard Thomas, Sally Mann and Edward Ruscha, whose famous image of the Hollywood Hills (on view) has become a staple of the art world. Ray Taylor Fair Gallery, Ongoing - Featuring a new and permanent installation of its ancient art collection. The installation includes approximately 50 objects that introduce the major ancient civilizations from the Mediterranean and Near East. Examples of the earliest form of writing from 12th century B.C. Mesopotamia, are shown next to Egyptian scarabs and Greek painted vessels. The world of the ancient Romans is represented by 2nd century glass and bronze items and portrait sculpture. Many of these works have not been seen since the Museum moved to its location on Main Street in 1998. The collection has grown over the last several years with the donation of 12 fine Roman sculptures in 2002 from Pennsylvania collector Dr. Robert Y. Turner. Admission: Yes, but there is no admission charge on Sun. Hours: Tue.-Sun., from 10am-5pm. Contact: 803/799-2810 or at (www.columbiamuseum.org).

McKissick Museum, University of South Carolina, USC Horseshoe, Columbia. Through Dec. 10 - "Sewn Through Time: Sweetgrass Basketmakers Reimagine a Tradition". A South Carolina's Lowcountry native, she will share how she came to study and write about a tradition. Carolina's Lowcountry basketmakers have sewn baskets since the 17th century. The tradition has been preserved at the hands of the Gullah-Geechee people, descendants of enslaved West Africans trafficked to North America. For over 300 years, basketmakers have transformed baskets from a plantation tool into an art form. Today, basketmakers continue to leverage heritage tourism to make a living, to advocate for the preservation of the ecosystem vital to the tradition, and to experiment with scale, form, and materials. This exhibit traces the evolution of sweetgrass baskets in South Carolina, highlighting the innovative work of contemporary makers. Ongoing - "Highlights from the Permanent Collections of McKissick Museum". Permanent - "Baruch Silver Collection," a collection of the Baruch family silver. And, "Natural Curiosity: USC and the Evolution of Scientific Inquiry into the Natural World". Hours: Mon.-Fri., 8:30am-5pm & Sat., 11am-3pm. Contact: 803/777-7251 or at (<http://artsandsciences.sc.edu/mcks/>).

McMaster Gallery, room 119, basement level, McMaster Building, 1615 Senate Street, Columbia. Jan. 12 - Feb. 16 - "Call / Response," is a collaborative exhibition by Hannah Barnes and Susan Klein, two artists with a history of working in dialogue with each other. Barnes and Klein share a lifelong engagement with abstraction and a regard for process-based making. For both artists, making is a responsive act, guided by attentive engagement with the observed world and an embrace of their mediums' unpredictabilities. In their collaborative projects Barnes and Klein mine the fruitful depths of friendship and exchange through sustained dialogue, playful improvisation, and intentional collaboration. This exhibition presents paintings, sculptures, and drawings resulting from two years of conversational and collaborative making. Mar. 2 - 17 - "68th Annual Juried Student Exhibition". The School of Visual Art and Design's 'Annual Juried Student Exhibition'. Students are awarded cash prizes for Best in Show; 1st, 2nd and 3rd Place Undergraduate Awards, and 1st, 2nd and 3rd Place Graduate Awards. Hours: Mon.-Fri., 9am-4:30pm. Contact: Olga Dickey, Gallery Director, at 803/422-4289 or e-mail to (yukhno@mailbox.sc.edu).

Mill District Public Art Trail (MDPAT), throughout the Whaley, Olympia and Granby neighborhoods, known as Columbia, SC's Mill District, Columbia. Ongoing - The MDPAT was conceived as a project in 2017 by 701 Center for Contemporary Art board and staff to connect the three neighborhoods through a creative endeavor. The inaugural works on the trail were created by 11 South Carolina artists - collaborators David Cianni (Aiken) and Anna Redwine (Columbia), Diana Farfán (Greenville), Susan

Lenz (Columbia), Robert Lyon (Columbia), Doug McAbee (Greenwood), Philip Moody (Rock Hill), Carey Morton (Charleston), Jordan Sheridan (Columbia), Brittany Watkins (Columbia), and Fletcher Williams III (Charleston). The works on the Mill District Public Art Trail invite us to explore the art and highlight the unique character of the distinctive neighborhoods within the Mill District. Part of this journey is discovering art in unexpected and surprising spaces. It is also an indication of the ongoing transformation taking place in this historically important community. Hours: normal daylight hours. For further information call 803/238-2351 or visit (<https://www.701cca.org/mill-district-public-art-trail-rfq-questions-answers>).

Richland County Public Library, 1431 Assembly St., Columbia. The Gallery at Main, Through Jan. 7, 2023 - "Art of Being: At Peace," featuring works by Olga Yukhno, Yevheniia Bazaliy, Nikolai Oskolkov, and Kimberly Case. Facing wartime abroad to adversity at home, this exhibition highlights four traditional and contemporary Ukrainian, Russian and American artists who have created works that speak to their interpretation of what it means to be at peace. Ongoing - Featuring 20 pieces of public art on permanent display. Hours: Mon.-Fri., 9am-9pm; Sat, 9am-6pm; Sun, 2-6pm. Contact: 803/988-0886 or at (www.richlandlibrary.com).

Kate Osmond, "Symphony In Time", 2022, acrylic and gold leaf on panel

701 Center for Contemporary Art, 701 Whaley St., Columbia. Main Gallery, Through Jan. 15, 2023 - "701 CCA Prize 2022 Finalist," featuring works by Kate Osmond of Charleston, Jordan Sheridan of Columbia and Brittany Watkins of Columbia. This is a competition and exhibition for South Carolina artists 40 years and younger. The winner of the Prize will be announced in November. This year's Prize is the sixth installment of the biennial event. "South Carolina's talent is immense. The entries provided ample opportunity for a robust conversation among jurors. Competition was fierce and the debate was invigorated by the immense talent and diversity of work being created in South Carolina," states Michaela Pilar Brown, outgoing Executive Director of 701 CCA. The three finalists were selected by an independent jury consisting of Karen Comer Lowe, Curator in Residence at Spelman College, Shannon Lindsey, Gallery Director of the University of Central Florida and former 701 CCA prize winner and Michael Neumiester, Curator of the Columbia Museum of Art. Hours: Wed.-Sun., 1-5pm. Contact: call Caitlin Bright at 803/238-2351 or at (www.701cca.org).
