Florence

Florence County Museum, 111 West Cheves Street, across the street from the Francis Marion University Performing Arts Center, Florence. Ongoing - "Kindred Spirit: The Personal Worlds of William H. Johnson". William H. Johnson (1901 - 1970) was a man between worlds: raised in the rural South, but educated in New York; black, but his unknown father was white; American-born, but lived much of his adult life in Europe. This diverse heritage gave Johnson a unique perspective and insight, but at times it was also a difficult shadow which followed him as he traveled the world in search of his true artistic voice. Eventually, after many years away from his hometown of Florence, SC, Johnson returned to the United States. Although living in New York, his art began to focus almost entirely on the lives and experiences of African Americans in the rural South. "My travels taught me that an artist must live and paint in his own environment. This development shall continue for the rest of my life, and it is the painting of my people," said Johnson in 1941. Special Exhibits Gallery, Through Jan. 22, 2023 - "Steven F. Gately". This exhibit will focus on the work of artist Steven F. Gately (1946 - 2021), and feature a selection of paintings, mixed media assemblage, and works on paper created in the 50-year period approximately between 1970 and 2020. Gately was best known locally as the C.B. & Marlene Asking Professor of Art, and

Coordinator of Visual Arts Programs at Francis Marion University, where he taught for 48 years. He received his MFA degree from Florida State University. Although an accomplished realist artist, the overall corpus of Gately's work can be described as formal abstraction, emphasizing foundational principals and elements to achieve modernist compositions. He was the subject of over twenty solo exhibitions during his lifetime. His work is represented in the collections of the Gibbes Arts Gallery, Charleston; The Columbia Museum of Art, Columbia; the State Art Collection of South Carolina; and various other public and private collections. Community Gallery, Ongoing - This exhibit introduces visitors to the history of the museum and its formative collections. This gallery also exhibits the histories and diversity of the City of Florence, and the incorporated municipalities of Florence County. Additionally, the Community Gallery communicates the lives, stories and accomplishments of significant past and present citizens of Florence County and members of its communities. This gallery is one of two permanent exhibit spaces designed by award winning exhibit design firm, HaleySharpe Design. Pee Dee History Gallery, Ongoing - This is the largest gallery space in the facility, comprising 3,300 sq. ft. of exhibit space. This permanent collections gallery occupies the entire second floor, east wing of the building. Artifacts are supported by historical images and narrative interpretation, giving a comprehensive introduction to the Pee Dee region from prehistory to the present. This gallery is one of two permanent exhibit spaces designed by award winning exhibit design firm, HaleySharpe Design. Waters Gallery, Through Dec. 2 - "Re/educated". In his ongoing series of paintings, North Carolina based artist Marcus Dunn explores problematic history - the United States' system of re-education camps for Native American children. Dunn's images are derived partly from documentary photographs of these "boarding schools" which generations of Native people were forced to attend during the late 19th and early 20th century. With broken brushwork and a muted color palette, Dunn's paintings simultaneously evoke a sense of faded memory, while bringing attention to a critically overlooked part of American history. Dunn descends from Tuscarora and Pee Dee tribal heritage. He earned his MFA in painting from Savannah College of Art and Design and currently teaches at Richmond Community College and University of North Carolina, Pembroke. Admission: Free. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-5pm & Sun. 2-5pm. Contact: 843/676-1200 or visit (www.flocomuseum.org).
