Asheville Art Museum, 2 South Pack Square at Pack Place, Asheville. Through Apr. 29, 2024 - "American Art in the Atomic Age: 1940-1960," which explores the groundbreaking contributions of artists who worked at the experimental printmaking studio Atelier 17 in the wake of World War II. Co-curated by Marilyn Laufer and Tom Butler, American Art in the Atomic Age which draws from the holdings of Dolan Maxwell, the Asheville Art Museum Collection, and private collections. "We are delighted to partner with the Asheville Art Museum to present an exhibition that highlights the brilliance of the Atelier 17 studio and artists during the Atomic Age," says Ron Rumford, Director of Dolan/Maxwell. "Though challenged by the times, Atelier 17 preserved and pioneered a legacy in printmaking that still inspires." Through Feb. 5, 2024 - "Beyond the Lens: Photorealist Perspectives on Looking, Seeing, and Painting". Throughout the history of painting from the mid-19th century forward, artists have used an endless variety of approaches to record their world. "Beyond the Lens: Photorealist Perspectives on Looking, Seeing, and Painting" continues this thread, offering an opportunity to explore a singular and still forceful aspect of American art. Photorealism shares many of the approaches of historical and modernist realism, with a twist. The use of the camera as a basic tool for organizing visual information in advance of painterly expression is now quite common, but Photorealists embraced the camera as the focal point in their creative process. "Beyond the Lens" presents key works from the collection of Louis K. and Susan Pear Meisel, bringing together paintings and works on paper dating from the 1970s to the present to focus on this profoundly influential art movement. The exhibition includes work by highly acclaimed formative artists of the movement such as Charles Bell, Robert Bechtle, Tom Blackwell, Richard Estes, Audrey Flack, and Ralph Goings as well as paintings by the successive generations of Photorealist artists Anthony Brunelli, Davis Cone, Bertrand Meniel, Rod Penner, and Raphaella Spence. The Van Winkle Law Firm Gallery, Level 1, Through Jan. 22, 2024 - "Romare Bearden: Ways of Working". Romare Bearden (Charlotte, NC 1911-1988 New York, NY), African American writer and artist, is renowned for his collages. He constantly experimented with various techniques to achieve his artistic goals throughout his career. This exhibition highlights works on paper and explores his most frequently used mediums, including screen-printing, lithography, hand-colored etching, collagraph, monotype, relief print, photomontage, and collage. Judith S. Moore Gallery, Through Apr. 15, 2024 - "Western North Carolina Glass," selections from the collection. Western North Carolina is important in the history of American glass art. Several artists of the Studio Glass Movement came to the region, including its founder Harvey K. Littleton. Begun in 1962 in Wisconsin, it was a student of Littleton's that first came to the area in 1965 and set up a glass studio at the Penland School of Craft in Penland, North Carolina. By 1967, Mark Peiser was the first glass artist resident at the school and taught many notable artists, like Jak Brewer in 1968 and
