Werger's newest and largest work to date, "Tidal Shift". This piece is a six-panel panoramic intaglio image consisting of hand drawn aquatint and white ground imagery. The title refers not only to the endangered coastal tidelands but also to the psychological mindset of the characters. At first glance, the image appears bucolic but there is a subtext in that the participants of this play are oblivious to the forces of the rising ocean and the impending consequences of their consumerist indulgences. Ongoing - works by Sigmund Abeles, John Acorn, Dave Appleman, Jane Armstrong, J.
