Pembroke

A.D. Gallery, University of NC at Pembroke, Locklear Hall, 1 University Dr, Pembroke. Ongoing - The A.D. Gallery is sponsored by the Art Department of the University of North Carolina at Pembroke. Serving the university and local community, the gallery provides a venue for student and faculty work, as well as that of local, regional, national and international artists. The gallery helps fulfill the department's goal of providing outstanding educational opportunities for its students by bringing quality visual arts to the university and the community at large. Hours: Mon.-Fri., 9am-6pm. Contact: e-mail to (joseph.begnaud@unpc.edu) or visit (www.unpc.edu/departments/art/ad-gallery).

The Museum of the Southeast American Indian, Old Main (first floor) at the University of North Carolina Pembroke, 1 University Drive, Pembroke. Through Feb. 28 - "Awakening The Spirit: The Legacy of Gloria Tara Lowery," curated by Alisha Locklear Monroe. This exhibit celebrates her life's work. Drawing inspiration from nature and her Lumbee culture, her work continues to encourage us to look listen and explore the beauty of things seen and unseen. Using watercolors, acrylics, oine needles, and other mixed media, we experience her love of landscapes, her treasured home in Robeson County and her connection with her ancestors. Through her work, she created a space where our spirits are free to see what the creator has in store for us all, She once said, "Art is not what I do, it's who I am." We are so thankful that she left so much beauty for us to explore. Ongoing - As part of the Southeast American Indian Studies Program at UNC Pembroke, The Museum of the Southeast American Indian maximizes the capacity of the University to address the complex historical, cultural and contemporary issues facing American Indian communities in North Carolina and the American Southeast. The Museum's cross-disciplinary collaborations greatly enhance the University's programs of research, service, outreach and instruction. The Museum is a multi-faceted museum and resource for scholarly research and community outreach. While the Museum contains exhibits of authentic Indian artifacts, arts and crafts from Indian communities all over the Americas, our primary focus is on tribes from the American Southeast. Many items come from North Carolina Native communities, with special emphasis on Robeson County Indian people. Specific focus is placed on the largest North Carolina tribe, the Lumbee, but our outreach activities have extended into Virginia and South Carolina with plans for further outreach throughout the Southeast. Hours: Mon.-Fri., 9am-5pm. We typically close for lunch from noon-1pm. Contact: call 910/521-6282 or e-mail to (nativemuseum@unpc.edu).

Raleigh

CAM Raleigh, 409 W. Martin Street, between Harrington and West streets, Raleigh. Feb. 5, from 6-8:30pm - "Going, Going, Gone to Pots! Annual Gala & Auction". Feast on fine foods and festive drinks. Enjoy sweet music as you take in the best of North Carolina's pottery and ceramics at our silent and live auctions. This event benefits the NC Pottery Center, a Seagrove-based non-profit promoting the rich heritage and ongoing artistry of pottery in North Carolina. We have begun gradually adding photos of gala auction pieces to the gala website (www.ncpcgala.org) and our Facebook page. Check them out and keep checking back as we gradually add them! Main Gallery, Through Oct. 31 - "UNSEEN: Clarence Heyward". Born and raised in Brooklyn, NY, Clarence Heyward is a painter and collagist. He relocated to North Carolina to study Art Education at North Carolina Central University. He creates paintings and collages as an exploration of his culture. Clarence's artistic practice is based in the questioning of his identity and circumstance. He seeks ways to engage in dialogues that ultimately leave him connected to those who experience his work. His work is personal. Although creating from his perspective, the human element present in the work creates a connection for all. Independent Weekly Gallery, Through Aug. 14 - "Titus Heagins". Exhibition Development for Transgender Series, photography. In the fall of 2021, CAM Raleigh will begin working with photographer Titus Heagins on the development of a major new exhibition devoted to the artist's long involvement photographing the transgender communities in the United States and Cuba. Exhibition Lab will provide the public with a real time, behind the scenes look at the development of a future CAM exhibition. During this yearlong experimental phase visitors will witness the difficulties of exhibit development within a complex, multilayered subject dealing with issues of race, gender, fairness, community, family, and Love. Exhibition Lab will culminate in a Main Gallery multi media exhibition, publication, and public programming series dedicated to the artist's work, opening in the fall of 2022. Mezzanine, Through Feb. 13 - "Ollie Wagner: New Work". Gregg Museum of Art & Design, The Historic Chancellor's Residence, NC State University, located at 1903 Hillsborough Street, Raleigh. All Main Galleries, Through Mar. 11 - "crossed kalunga by the stars & other acts of resistance," features work by seven contemporary artists who evidence transformative and contested circumstances in their production. Art by José Bedia, Athlone Clarke, André Leon Gray, Esmerelda Mila, Rex Miller, Marielle Plaisir, and Renée Stout navigates awareness and adversity in conversation with nature and memory. Each shares a distinctive perspective on how art can speak provocative truths amidst a sea of mutable facts. In her/his own way, each artist gathers and weaves real and imagined histories — past and recent — to embed their art with layers of creative, ancestral, and spiritual DNA to elucidate possible features in formation. Ongoing - One of NC State University's most historic buildings is now the permanent home of the Gregg Museum of Art & Design. The Historic Chancellor's Residence, located at 1903 Hillsborough Street, along with a 15,000 sq. ft. addition, increases the museum's visibility while significantly adding to its exhibition and programming space. Hours: The Gregg Museum is suspending the need for timed entry reservations. Current museum hours are Tuesday - Friday, 10am to 5pm. The Gregg does ask that larger groups (15+) call ahead at (919) 515-3503, to avoid crowding in the galleries. Contact: Zoe Starling, Curator of Education at 919/513-7244 or at (<https://gregg.arts.ncsu.edu/>).

Visitors photograph a large-scale floral installation by Alison Creekmore, Julie Vaughan, and Seraph Sharpe of Wake Forest Florist and Gifts at Art in Bloom 2021.

North Carolina Museum of Art, 2110 Blue Ridge Road, Raleigh. Mar. 16 - 20 - "Art in Bloom," the annual floral fundraiser, presented by PNC Bank. The five-day event features an international theme across programming, with large platform floral displays reflecting the diverse geographies represented in the People's Collection, British florist Joseph Massie as special guest, and daily live global music. This year's event will include an extra day and the return of the popular opening reception. "Art in Bloom 2022" entry tickets and related event tickets are on sale for members and starting Feb. 2, for nonmembers. Tickets are: $30 Members, $33 Nonmembers, and free for children 6 and under. Select events and time slots are expected to sell out, so visitors are encouraged to join as members. More information is below. Through Feb. 13 - "NC Artist Connections: The Beautiful Project, Stephen Hayes, and Hông-An Truong". For decades the NCMA has provided art education, inspiration, and free access to its People's Collection to generations of North Carolinians. For artists the Museum has been a particularly special place as a space for study and experimentation and a guide for burgeoning careers. In this exhibition the NCMA highlights three artists who present new and reconceived works of art with themes that link to important works in the Museum collection. In connecting the NCMA to local contemporary artists, the exhibition helps visitors experience the NCMA's collection in new ways while gaining a deeper understanding of the artists' ongoing relationships to these works, as well as how the work of other artists relates to their practice. Feb. 26 - May 15 - "Container/Contained: Phil Freelon Design Strategies for Telling African American Stories". Exhibition highlights the career of the storied NC architect who designed the National Museum of African American History and Culture in DC. The exhibition celebrates the accomplished North Carolina architect Philip G. Freelon (1953-2019) and his remarkable career of over four decades designing public buildings with his firm, The Freelon Group, and later as design director of Perkins&Will North Carolina. "We're honored to help tell the story of Phil Freelon and his incredible accomplishments. The symbolism and metaphors in the buildings he designed celebrate Black communities and histories in a lasting way," said Museum Director Valerie Hillings. "Freelon served on the North Carolina Museum of Art Foundation Board from 2008 to 2012, so we are especially pleased to present this exhibition focused on his groundbreaking career." This exhibition, organized by a team of faculty and students led by Dr. Emily Makas from the School of Architecture at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, debuted at the Harvey B. Gantt Center for African American Arts and Culture in Charlotte, NC. It examines Freelon's work, which includes museums, libraries, cultural centers, and public parks, with a focus on proj-
