Spartanburg

Throughout downtown Spartanburg's Cultural District, Ongoing - The Creative Crosswalk Project is a public art initiative in which local artists and designers design and paint a series of crosswalk murals, transforming the crosswalks into works of art, on Main Street in Spartanburg, SC. The downtown cultural district area is often bustling with events and pedestrians, and the pedestrians rely heavily on a multitude of crosswalks to safely traverse the downtown Spartanburg area. The problem is that crosswalks are incredibly easy to overlook, they are rarely visually appealing, and they can even be quite dangerous. In an effort to remedy these issues, Chapman Cultural Center, the City of Spartanburg, and the Spartanburg Area Chamber of Commerce came together to organize the Creative Crosswalk Project. Work by Carole Knudson Tinsley

Artists Collective | Spartanburg (formerly West Main Artists Cooperative), 578 West Main St., Spartanburg. Solomon Gallery, Mar. 8 - Apr. 30 - "Past to Present: Retrospective: 60 Years Painting," featuring works by Carole Knudson Tinsley. An artist's talk will be held on Mar. 17 and a gallery reception will be held April 21, from 6-9pm. When she was 10 years old, Carole Knudson Tinsley won a blue ribbon at the Sangamon (Illinois) County Fair for an ink drawing of a little girl. Six decades later, her artwork has developed from that "realistic" work to expressionistic to "imaginative abstraction." The exhibition relates to Tinsley's paintings from when she became a "serious painter" to the present, with examples of studies and paintings expressing her development through the years. "Interests earlier were of more realistic subjects, but later I became interested in abstracting my compositions," she says. "Many works will reflect my interest in ancient cultures, especially Native Americans characteristics of their dwellings. One will observe earlier works which were created with oils, then went to watercolors. Presently I paint with acrylics and mixed media collage." Gallery II, Mar. 8 - Apr. 2 - "Elemental Journeys: A Mixed Media Collection of Energy, Light, Crystals and Color, featuring works by Robyn Crawford. Crawford asks viewers to "feel the energy of each piece and travel through the elements of the Earth, starting with water and air and transitioning to fire and earth." She adds, "We are all connected to everyone and everything," says Crawford, who lives in Hendersonville with her two children. "I have always been inspired by nature, life cycles, patterns, color and music. It occurred to me that I was actually using all the elements in the creation of these works and began to intentionally work though having all the elements represented." Ongoing - The Collective features a twenty thousand square foot facility offering affordable studio space, retail space, three galleries, a full ceramics studio, printery, and works by 50 local artists. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-4pm; with extended hours on the 3rd Thur. of each month until 9pm for Spartanburg's Art Walk. Contact: 864/804-6501 or at (artistscollectivespartanburg.org).

Mayfair Art Studios, a division of Chapman Cultural Center, 1885 Hayne Street, within the Arcadia Mill Village, Spartanburg. Ongoing - Works by Carl Tait and Harold Krisel are on display. Tait was a successful painter, textile designer, and interior designer. His ties to the Spartanburg community originate from his longtime employment at Milliken and Company. Tait was born in Old Town, Maine in 1917 and graduated from the New Hampshire Institute of Arts and Science. In the late 1940s, he moved to New York City where he designed an exclusive line of ladies' handkerchiefs for the department store B. Altman, now considered vintage, collectible items. He also became associated with the American Artist Group designing Christmas cards, an occupation which he kept up throughout the majority of his artistic career. Krisel was a distinguished artist, architect, and teacher as well as a loving father and husband. Though Krisel may not be a household name among Spartanburg residents, he has made a significant artistic contribution to the Spartanburg community. Born in Brooklyn, NY in 1920, Krisel's interest in art and design started at a young age. He attended the American Artist School in New York City as a teenager where he met renowned modern artists, including Piet Mondrian, who greatly influenced his abstract style. After studying architecture at the New Bauhaus in Chicago from 1946-1949, he received his graduate degree from Illinois Institute of Technology in 1952. The following year, he began working for architectural firm Skidmore, Owings and Merrill when Roger Milliken hired them to design Milliken's new research facility in Spartanburg. Upon realizing Krisel was also a sculptor, Milliken hired him to design the spray fountain outside of the facility which functions as a recycler of air conditioning water. He then went on to design the Trident Fountain located outside of the Papadopoulos building on Wofford College's campus. Hours: Mon.-Fri., 10am-7pm & Sat, 9am-3pm. Sumter

Work by Wilfred Spoon

Sumter County Gallery of Art, Sumter County Cultural Center, 135 Haynesworth St., Sumter. Through Apr. 22 - "Hands On, the South," featuring works by Micah Green. Green was born in Texas and lived much of his childhood in Mississippi. His nomadic way of life has taken him to Georgia, South Carolina and now Alabama. A graduate of Mississippi State University, Green began taking photographs while working at a short-staffed newspaper and has since become an accomplished photo-journalist working with "The New York Times", Bloomberg, Reuters and numerous regional publications including "The Sumter Item". Through Apr. 22 - "Quiet Ground," featuring works by Wilfred Spoon. Spoon is a Mt. Pleasant, SC-based painter whose preferred medium is oils. Born in Charlotte, NC, he earned his MFA at Parsons School of design in New York in 1987. Spoon's influences include primitivism, early and pre-renaissance painters of religious icons, and Cubism whose artists explored new spatial relationships that finally broke with the Renaissance traditions of perspective. In his still lifes the division between foreground and background is not distinct and space, both interior and exterior, seems to be that of the Cubist-derived style. Artisan Center Gift Shop - Featuring art objects from local and regional artists. Hours: Tues-Sat 11-5pm & Sun., 1:30-5pm. Contact: 803/775-0543 or at (www.sumtergallery.org).
