

Spartanburg County Public Libraries

continued from Page 45

an NEA/SECCA Southeastern Seven IV Fellowship from the Southeastern Center for Contemporary Art, and two SC Arts Commission Artist Fellowships.

For further information check our SC Institutional Gallery listings, call Miranda Mims Sawyer, Art Director, Art in the Library at 864/285-9091.

Burroughs-Chapin Art Museum in Myrtle Beach, SC, Offers Exhibit Focused on Mickey Spillane

The Franklin G. Burroughs-Simeon B. Chapin Art Museum in Myrtle Beach, SC, is presenting I, the Writer: A Collection of Mickey Spillane Memorabilia, on view through Apr. 20, 2014.

For fans of mystery novels and films, the name Mickey Spillane has been a familiar one for nearly seven decades; more than 200 million copies of his books have sold internationally, including seven of the top 15 all-time best-selling fiction titles in the US. As a longtime resident of Murrells Inlet who died in 2006 (at the age of 88), Spillane's cachet is even greater along the Grand Strand.

Those fans will have a not-to-be-missed opportunity to relive their memories of Spillane's work and life. The exhibition is accompanied by a series of public events featuring the books and films created during Spillane's long career and highlighting the legacy of his work.

Presented in conjunction with Coastal Carolina University's OLLI division and

The Athenaeum Press, this wonderful collection of memorabilia borrowed from the Spillane residence in Murrells Inlet, SC, offers a glimpse into the fascinating life of one of the best-selling pulp fiction writers of our time.

Items in the exhibit include original hardback, paperback and comic book covers and posters promoting Spillane novels; photo stills from Spillane's Miller beer commercials; photographs and illustrations; and even a vintage manual typewriter used by the author.

Components of Museum programs are funded in part by support from the City of Myrtle Beach, the Horry County Council and the South Carolina Arts Commission, which receives support from the National Endowment for the Arts.

For further information check our SC Institutional Gallery listings, call the Museum at 843/238-2510 or visit (www.MyrtleBeachArtMuseum.org).

Burroughs-Chapin Art Museum in Myrtle Beach Offers High School Art Exhibition

The Franklin G. Burroughs-Simeon B. Chapin Art Museum in Myrtle Beach, SC, is presenting the Horry-Georgetown County High Schools 13th Annual Juried Art Exhibition, on view through Apr. 20, 2014.

Local high-school artists will have the opportunity to win cash prizes, make sales and experience a museum showing of their work with this exhibition.

Cash prizes awarded by Carolina Radiology Associates, LLC, include Best in Show in either 2D or 3D ($500); First ($100), Second ($75) and Third place ($50) in both 2D and 3D works; plus eight Honorable Mentions two of which are sponsored by the Waccamaw Arts & Craft Guild, ($25) in three 2D and three 3D.

Schools participating are: Aynor High School, Carolina Forest High School, Conway High School, Georgetown High School, Green Sea Floyd High School, Loris High School, Lowcountry Preparatory School, Myrtle Beach High School, Myrtle Beach Academy for the Arts, Sciences & Technology, North Myrtle Beach High School, Socastee High School, St. James High School and Vine and Branches.

More than 350 pieces were submitted for consideration in this year's competition and 77 pieces were chosen to be displayed at the Museum. This year's judge is Reynier Llanes (b. 1985, Pinar del Rio, Cuba).

Llanes developed his remarkable talent as a visual artist in Cuba despite government-imposed restrictions on art expression and the resulting constraints on making a living as a professional artist. In 2007, Llanes relocated to the United States. Settling in Naples, FL, he immediately immersed himself in educational opportunities to learn English and began the process of establishing his US citizenship. For two years, he worked alongside world-renowned artist Jonathan Green at Green's studio. In 2009, he was offered the position of Artist in Residence at Jonathan Green Studios. Shortly thereafter, he moved with Green and his staff to Green's new studio in Charleston, SC, where he currently resides and works. In 2011, Llanes exhibited his work at the Art Museum in a solo exhibition, Preserving a Cultural Heritage: The Coffee Paintings of Reynier Llanes. In addition to painting, Llanes is learning art management methods and is representing fine art created by professional artists who continue to live and work in Cuba.

The Horry-Georgetown County High Schools 13th Annual Juried Art Exhibition is generously sponsored by Carolina Radiology Associates, LLC located in Myrtle Beach, SC.

For further information check our SC Institutional Gallery listings, call the Museum at 843-238-2510 or visit (www.MyrtleBeachArtMuseum.org).

Seacoast Artists Guild in Myrtle Beach, SC, Features Works by Young Women

The Seacoast Artists Guild in Myrtle Beach, SC, will present Great Expectations, an art exhibition that explores the issues that arise from the numerous expectations placed on young women in modern society as seen through the eyes of six women, on view at the Seacoast Artists Guild Gallery at The Market Common, from Apr. 16 - 20, 2014. A reception will be held on Apr. 19, from 6-8pm.

The young women participating include: Ashlee flippin' Arakas, Callie Barfield, Brittany Clark, Katie Farrelly, Rebecca Jolly, and Gwendolyn Washington.

Great Expectations will contain a series of work from each of the six artists. Through their individual work, the artists will explore their own personal views on the expectations of women and its limitations with their own style and media preference. The exhibition will highlight the subliminal and conscious effects of history, media, and reality on the steadily growing expectations of beauty, attitude, sexuality, and "being a lady."

Art featured will contain the animalistic nature of the female, the suffocation caused by great expectations, explorations of the female body, media portrayal and its effect on young girls, and a classic princess with a reality twist. This exhibition gives the public the chance to support local art while experiencing the struggles and strengths of six young women through their thought-provoking and captivating art creations.

continued on Page 48

Arts International

Francis Marion University

April 12th • 10am - 5pm
Free Admission • Rain or Shine

Join us on the campus of Francis Marion University for Arts International. The festival features cultural areas, international food, music and a youth activity center.

Kassab Recital Hall

11am The Plaids – Lake City
12noon Florence Brass
1pm The Men's Choral Society

Blues/Beach Stage

1pm Three Day Blues
2pm Recollections
3pm Nantucket Band
4pm Nantucket Band

International Stage

11am Steve Gryb
Pied Piper of Percussion
11:30am Thirza Defoe
Native American Indian
12:30pm Ballet Folklórico de México
1:30pm Thirza Defoe
Native American Indian
2:30pm Ballet Folklórico de México
3:30pm Steve Gryb
Pied Piper of Percussion

FDTC Sculpture Competition

Featuring professional and student welding teams, the competition runs all day to see which team can transform a heap of scrap metal into beautiful sculpture.

www.fmarion.edu/news/artsinternational

Waccamaw Arts & Crafts Guild's

Art in the Park

42nd Year

at two venues in Myrtle Beach, SC

Over 60 artists from the East Coast to Tennessee, with about 20 artists from our local area!

2014 - 42nd Year

Chapin Park

1300 N. Kings Hwy

Valor Park

Myrtle Beach Market Common
1120 Farrow Parkway

April 5 & 6,
June 21 & 22,
October 11 & 12 and
November 1 & 2

April 12 & 13 and
November 8 & 9

Both Venues
Saturdays & Sundays: 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

No Admission Charge • Child and Pet Friendly

Art includes Paintings, Woodworking,
Photography, Jewelry, Fabric, Glass, Metal,
Pottery and Stone

Contact: JoAnne Utterback at 843-446-3830

www.artsyparksy.com