gives absurdist humor many forms, from the wordplay of a title to gently ironic manipulations of the Modernist canon, to cartoon motifs lovingly crafted in wood, evoking a more sophisticated sense of humor. SECCA Executive Director Mark Leach says, "We're thrilled to invite the community to get acquainted with Cora's imaginative and playful curatorial vision. I think our public will thoroughly enjoy her intelligent gathering of the featured work and her insightful analysis of Mr. Fertman's creative practice." Through May 24 - "Jennifer Meanley: Far away, in the meadow," features a solo exhibition, organized by SECCA and curated by Steven Matijcio. The paintings and collages of this North Carolina-based artist lure us into richly hued and strange worlds. The exhibition includes new work by Meanley and features a site-specific 27-foot collage, which draws on classical narratives and further demonstrates the emotional complexity of the artist's imagery and storytelling. The title "Far Away in the Meadow" comes from Ray Bradbury's 1962 novel, Something Wicked This Way Comes. It is in that meadow where shadows flicker, "as if parts of someone's life, yet unborn, were trapped there, waiting to be lived." The landscapes of Meanley's paintings, like Bradbury's meadow, are somber and mysterious, taking shape before our eyes. Yet, strangely, their colors are rich and bright.
