Work by Thomas Hart Benton

Gallery 6, Through Sept. 25 - "Artists at Work: American Printmakers and the WPA". This exhibition showcases prints created under the Federal Art Project, a unit of the Works Progress Administration (WPA). Created in 1935 to provide economic relief to Americans during the Great Depression, the WPA offered work to the unemployed on an unprecedented scale by spending money on a wide array of programs, including highways and building construction, reforestation and rural rehabilitation. Like railroad workers, miners, farmers and anyone out of work, artists were recognized as a special group of laborers in need of financial assistance. Holden Community Gallery, Through July 10 - "An Inside View". The exhibit examines the notion of interior environments as depicted by a number of artists throughout the 20th and 21st centuries. The word "interior" suggests defined spaces whether they be the interior of a building or a city or even a region. Drawn from the collection of the Asheville Art Museum, this exhibition looks at familiar interiors - in homes, work spaces and public buildings - and moves outward to consider interiors within cities and regions. Admission: Yes. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-5pm; Fri. till 8pm & Sun., 1-5pm. Contact: 828/253-3227 or at (www.ashevilleart.org).

Work by April Flanders

Catwalk Community Gallery, Through June 4 - "Beyond Their Natural Range: April Flanders". Printmaker April Flanders' current work addresses the uncontrollable nature of invasive botanical species in the Appalachian region, influenced by humankind's fascination with the exotic, and perhaps driven by the need for individuality. The exhibit reveals the result of this obsession as an unnatural, globalized landscape that means an inexorable death for native species. Mezzanine Gallery, Through June 4 - "8th Appalachian Mountain Photography Competition". The Competition (AMPC) is a program of Appalachian's Outdoor Programs in partnership with the Blue Ridge Parkway Foundation and the Turchin Center for the Visual Arts. The AMPC has become a prominent regional competition, attracting the work of amateur and professional photographers from across the country and allowing them the opportunity to celebrate the unique people, places and pursuits that distinguish the Southern Appalachian mountains. Categories for photographic submissions include: Adventure, Blue Ridge Parkway Vista, Share the Journey, Culture, Environment, Flora/Fauna and Landscape. Hours: 10am-6pm, Tue., Wed., Thur., & Sat. and Fri., noon-8pm. Contact: Hank T. Foreman at 828/262-3017 or at (www.turchincenter.org).
