Rosalind Sallenger Richardson Center for the Arts, Wofford College, Spartanburg. Lower Level, Richardson Family Art Museum, Through May 19 - "Sacred and Secular: Netherlandish Baroque Paintings from Regional Collections". The selection of 17th-century Dutch and Flemish paintings represent complex and conflicting forces across the political, religious, economic and social spheres of life that account for an abundance of art produced with unprecedented richness and variety of creative expression. The Netherlands, a major center of artistic production during the Baroque period, was home to many of these contrasts and conflicts within its relatively small geographic boundaries along the northern coast of Europe. Upper Lever, Richardson Family Art Museum, Through May 19 - "Graphic Solidarity: The Internationalist Outlook of the Cuban Revolution". This exhibition features posters produced in Cuba during the period following the revolution through the 1980s. The highlighted posters focus on Cuba's efforts to spread the messages of its revolution worldwide and to inspire others in the fight against oppression stemming from the legacy of imperialism and colonialism. Primarily published by the OSPAAAL organization based in Havana, these works helped to facilitate the internationalist outlook and message of the Cuban revolution through their inclusion in the Tricontinental magazine, which reached people in more than 60 countries worldwide. The works in the exhibition are on loan from the collection of Lindsay Webster of Spartanburg, SC. Curated by Katie McCorkle, class of 2019, this exhibition is a culmination of her yearlong honors project for art history and government. Ongoing - Featuring the Cerise and Amber Persian Ceiling sculptures created by renowned American sculptor Dale Chihuly.
