Pink Dog Creative Gallery, 348 Depot Street, in the River Arts District, Asheville. Through May 5 - "Time, Memory and Lineage," featuring works by Lynn Bregman Blass and Leah Sobsey. In 2007 Blass and Sobsey began a conversation about the qualities of photography and encaustic, a process involving beeswax & damar resin, used in Fayum mummy portraits in Egypt in 100-300 AD. Each medium uses the idea of time in similar yet disparate ways: Photography as a way of bringing the moment to bear, an ephemeral way of remembering; encaustic, through its translucency, allowing the viewer to look back through a paintings layers and see how each moment, each stroke, informs the present. We became interested in how these two different processes could be joined together to speak to the idea of time. May 10 - June 9 - "In Times Like These," featuring an exhibition of contemporary poetry paired with contemporary visual art reflecting the times in which we currently live.
