

Reach Out to Seagrove Potteries

continued from Page 18

tery.com). For info call 336/879-4145.

Work from Tom Gray Pottery

Tom Gray Pottery - Handmade pots for the arts, acts and rituals of food preparation, serving and dining. Online shopping at (<https://www.handmadeinseagrove.com/shop>). For info and to place an order please contact us by e-mail to (tomgray-seagrove@gmail.com).

Jugtown Pottery - The Jugtown team will continue to work, making pots and updating our Shop Online page at (<https://www.jugtownware.com/shop-online>). If there is anything we can help you with, give us a call at 910/464-3266.

Potts Pottery - Jeff Potts has the studio up and working! Contact Jeff by e-mail at (pottspottery@embarqmail.com) or call 336/873-9660.

Rockhouse Pottery - Closed to the public for now, call or e-mail. Contact Carolyn Poole by calling 336/879-2053 or e-mail to (tcpoole@hotmail.com).

Sandra O'Quinn Pottery - Reach out to Sandra by phone at 910/464-5125.

Dirtworks Pottery - Contact Dan or Ben for best selections available by calling 336/873-8979.

Fine a map and further info on these Seagrove Potteries at (www.discoverseagrove.com).

South Carolina Art Education Association Features GSSM Students in Virtual Art Exhibition

Five students represented The South Carolina Governor's School for Science and Mathematics (GSSM) in the 2020 Eastern Region K-12 Youth Art Month (YAM) Virtual Art Exhibition, hosted by the South Carolina Art Education Association.

Students included are: Shelby Moore of Anderson County; Ethan Mills of Georgetown County; Haleigh Gartner of Beaufort County; Emma Keiser of Charleston County; and Gracie Floyd of Florence County.

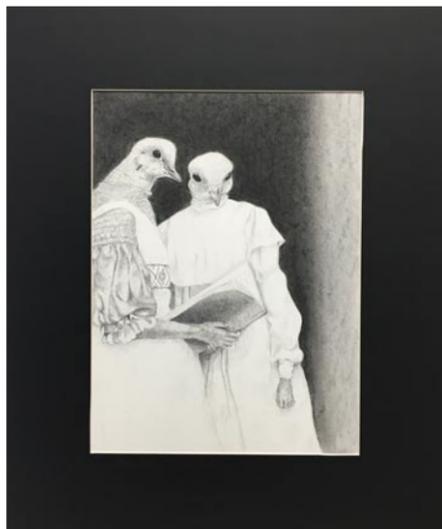

Work by Shelby Moore

The exhibition was juried by the Linda English Gallery in Florence, SC. Gracie Floyd took first place and Shelby Moore took second place in the high school division of the Eastern Region competition.

Work by Emma Keiser

"Many students at GSSM whose main focus is on STEM also have a deeply profound relationship with the humanities and fine arts," said Patz Fowle, GSSM Visual Arts Coordinator. "Visual art is a thriving, living place in one's soul. It's a place where curiosity is abundant, and ideas are realized. As an artist and as an art educator, it is a wondrous pleasure to witness each student's creative growth as they develop a life-long love of the arts.

Work by Gracie Floyd

Along with so many others, I celebrate our student artists and their creative achievements."

Created in 1961 by The Art & Creative Materials Institute (ACMI), Youth Art Month was an event to emphasize the value to children from participating in visual art education. Youth Art Month encourages support for quality school art programs and promotes art material safety. The program provides a medium for recognizing skills developed through visual arts experiences unlike any other curriculum subjects, including problem-solving, creativity, observation, and communication.

GSSM art students received 1st place award & 2nd Place award in the high school division of the Eastern Region YAM competition/exhibition of the SC Art Education Association. (All eastern region winners listed below are currently in the state virtual exhibition)

1. Elementary(K-5) - 1st - Ada Castillo (3rd grade) from Socastee Elementary School and 2nd - Seth Strickland (Kindergarten) from Waccamaw Elementary School.
2. Middle(6-8) - 1st - Samatha Lemire (8th grade) from Forestbrook Middle School and 2nd - Sadie Patterson (6th grade) from Briggs Elementary School.
3. High(9-12) - 1st - Gracie Floyd (11 grade) from SC Governor's School for Science and Math and 2nd - Shelby Moore (12th grade) from SC Governor's School for Science and Math.

You can view these works at this link (<https://www.scaea.org/yam-2020.html>).

Discover the Seagrove Potteries

Seagrove is a Community of Working Potters & home to the North Carolina Pottery Center

You're invited....

To visit the Seagrove potters at their workshops & studios nestled in the countryside.

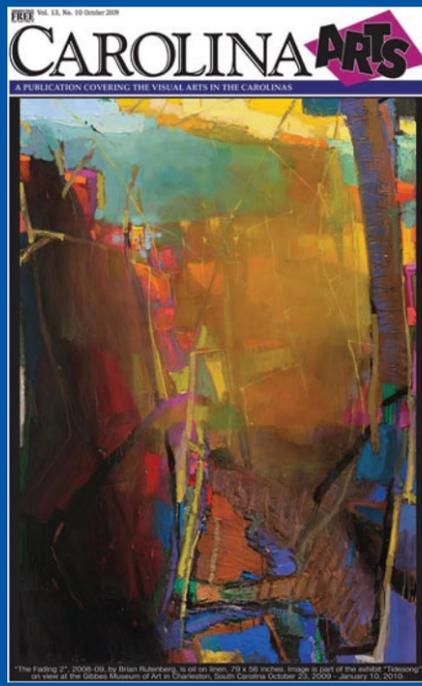

Experience a diversity of pottery from contemporary, one-of-a-kind art pottery, to traditional utilitarian forms, & folk art

It's an Adventure....

Pick up a free colored map at any of the pottery shops

Seagrove is located in the Center of North Carolina 40 miles south of Greensboro on Hwy. 220 (future I-73, I-74)

www.discoverseagrove.com

Visit
Carolina Arts
on Facebook

Go to this link and "like" us!

Don't forget about our website:

www.carolinaarts.com

You can find past issues all the way back to August 2004!

You can find past articles all the way back to June 1999

Also don't forget about our two blogs:

Carolina Arts Unleashed

Carolina Arts News

Send us your email address to be added to our list to receive notice of each monthly issue.

info@carolinaarts.com