Weatherspoon Art Museum, University of North Carolina - Greensboro, Cone Building, Tate and Spring Garden Streets, Greensboro. The Gregory D. Ivy Gallery & The Weatherspoon Guild Gallery, Through June 22 - "Inequality and Social Justice in a Changing World". Social injustice has long motivated artists to create works of art as a form of protest and social commentary. The images in this exhibition, all from the museum's permanent collection, speak volumes about the conditions of the working class, disparities in global wealth and power, and the rights of women and ethnic groups in the modern world. Although not all the artists included would consider themselves activists, their artwork at minimum questions the traditional boundaries and hierarchies of culture as represented by those in power. The Leah Louise B. Tannenbaum Gallery, The Louise D. and Herbert S. Falk, Sr. Gallery, June 21 - Aug. 24 - "Food for Thought". The exhibition explores the use of food as a conceptual and formal tool in contemporary art. From monumental paintings of jelly donuts to highly aestheticized photographs of leftovers, the works in this exhibition reveal how artists transport the art historical tradition of still life painting into new territory by using food to explore contemporary issues and social concerns. Gallery 6, Through July 20 - "The Greatest Show on Earth: Circus Imagery from the Collection". This exhibition of works from the collection shows the changing attitudes toward the circus from the early 20th century, when its three rings of entertainment were an essential part of American culture, to today, when its performers and features have a diminished, even nostalgic, status. Many of the images date to the period of World War II and thus serve as ironic reminders of life's inescapable hardships. Atrium and Lobbies - Featuring works of art complementing current gallery exhibitions which are rotated in the atrium and public areas throughout both floors of the gallery. Tom Otterness' site-specific work, "The Frieze" is permanently installed in the atrium. Sculpture Courtyard - Featuring selections of American sculpture from 1900 to the present from the Weatherspoon Collection and on loan works from contemporary artists. Admission: Free. Hours: Tue., Wed. & Fri., 10am-5pm, Thur., 10am to 9pm and weekends, 1-5pm. Contact: 336/334-5770 or at (http://weatherspoon.uncg.edu/).

Highlands

The Bascom, a center for the visual arts, 323 Franklin Rd., covered bridge entrance at the end of Main Street, Highlands. Bunzi Gallery, Through June 15 - "Out of the Ordinary." Rebecca Dimling Cochran is the guest curator for the exhibition that will focus on contemporary artists, including Long-bin Chen, Willie Cole, Chakaia Booker, Matthew Brandt, Mary Engel, and Vik Muniz, who select and use materials specifically for the symbolism or iconography that adds to their work. She will moderate a panel discussion of artists whose works are in this exhibition. Atrium Gallery, Through June 1 - "Wave Forms," featuring sculptures by Heather Hilton. Hilton's sculptures express natural movement, unfolding wave forms which possess and project a calming quiet. Hilton works primarily in wood, carving abstract sculpture. The bronze sculptures are cast from the original wood pieces and are stunning in outdoor garden settings. Landing Gallery, Through July 27 - "High School Ceramics". In an ongoing partnership between The Bascom and Highlands School, the Highlands High School Ceramics Class, taught in the Dave Drake Studio Barn during spring semester by Frank Vickery, will display its best work. These works focus on wheel-throwing techniques, as well as traditional and contemporary approaches to making and finishing works of art. Balcony Gallery, Through Aug. 3 - "Elsa Norris Dodd Remembered". Dodd was a favorite character of Highlands, known by many to be a talented artist who promoted the arts in Highlands early on. Members of the Highlands Art League, in collaboration with The Bascom, have curated this exhibition of Dodd's work that will present a retrospective of her life's work. Education Gallery, Ongoing - The Bascom offers our students and instructors an opportunity to display their creative works from workshops and classes. The perspectives of these talented individuals reveal self-expression, cultural awareness and technical discipline. These ongoing displays expose the viewer to the analysis, invention, exploration and decision making processes used by students during the development of ideas into a work of art. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-5pm. Contact: 828/526-4949 or at (www.thebascom.org).

High Point

Work by Alix Hitchcock
