VOTE JOE

PRESTON FOR PROGRESS

"I am Joe Preston. I am a 38 year old husband, adoptive father of 2, former firefighter, and concerned citizen.

I am a Democrat running for the South Carolina House of Representatives District 112.

Under current leadership, our state is failing. We fail when it comes to education, road infrastructure, opportunity, safety, and crime.

Corruption has become regular order at the statehouse.

I am running because this situation can no longer be tolerated and real change is needed."

Art League of Hilton Head on Hilton Head Island, SC, Features Works by Kathryn Riley Parker

The Art League of Hilton Head on Hilton Head Island, SC, will present Paper Cuts, Shadows and Shapes, featuring works by Kathryn Riley Parker, on view at the Art League Gallery located mid-island inside the Arts Center of Coastal Carolina, from June 5 - 30, 2018. A reception will be held on June 6, from 5-7pm.

Parker's exhibition is uniquely in the medium of paper. This theme was chosen to "show the medium's capacity to add depth and texture" and is largely inspired by Lowcountry flora and fauna.

Much of Parker's subject matter inspires her with a "sense of optimism and tranquility, and I want to convey that to viewers of my art". She hopes that the third dimension added by paper invites viewers to take "a closer look at shapes, textures, patterns, and minute details" of the work and appreciate the potential of the medium.

Parker, originally from Maryland, retired from a successful career as a university professor and academic author in the fields of English and linguistics and relocated to Hilton Head Island in 2012 with her husband. She took her first art class in 2015 at Art League Academy and SoBA, and has been working with paper since 2016. Her

Work by Kathryn Riley Parker work has won awards from Art League of Hilton Head and the Craft Hilton Head Juried Exhibition and is also featured in Pluff Mudd Gallery in Bluffton, SC.
