Columbia Museum of Art

Ecos is an invitation to appreciate the work of Latino artists and to value the lives of Latino immigrants. It is an assertion that their stories belong to the history of South Carolina and that they too belong.

Gallery texts offered in both Spanish and English. Audio recordings offered in Spanish with Spanish and English transcriptions.

Artists participating in this exhibition include: Dalia Delanuez, Ashley Daniela Garcia, Félix Maceda Baizabal, Yulia Martinez Escobar, Pedro Rodríguez, Maribel Acosta, Alejandro García-Lemos, Sammy Lopez, Paola Torres-Ruiz, Diana Farfán, Daniel Andreu, Aura Ramirez, Ninotchka Santamaria, Lauren Andreu, Steven Roldan, Carolina Mascarin, Oscar Soto Mitchell, Aldo Muzarelli, and Yelitza Diaz.

The initiative has been made possible through the support of the Gaylord and Dorothy Donnelley Foundation and was coordinated in partnership with The Citadel Oral History Program and Palmetto Luna Arts.

Haywood County Arts Council in Waynesville Offers Group Exhibit

The Haywood County Arts Council in Waynesville, NC, will present Freedom: An Artist's Point of View Show, sponsored by HCAC and local non-profit, REACH, on view in the HCAC Gallery, from June 1 - 30, 2018. A reception will be held on June 1, from 6-9pm during Waynesville's Art After Dark event.

REACH serves survivors of domestic violence, sexual assault, elder abuse and teen dating violence. They not only operate a 24-hour helpline and emergency shelter, but also provide victim advocacy, legal assistance, counseling referrals, and community education.

With over 30 local artists donating works of art in oil, acrylic, ceramic, photo, digital, textile, watercolor, pencil, coldwax and glass mediums, this promises to be an exciting show.

The Haywood County Arts Council is a non-profit agency that serves all artists and arts organizations in Haywood

Work by Margaret Pennington Roberts

County. As an affiliate of the North Carolina Arts Council, the Haywood County Arts Council seeks to fulfill its mission to promote artists, art education and innovation in art.

THERE'S A FINE LINE BETWEEN PRICELESS AND WORTHLESS.

Artist Diane Falkenhagen's Texas studio — destroyed by flooding during Hurricane Ike, 2008

What would you do if you lost your work, your tools, your images, and a lot more to a flood? Metalsmith Diane Falkenhagen knows what five feet of contaminated saltwater can do to a jewelry studio. CERF+ can help you learn how to protect your career from crossing that fine line.
