Highlands

The Bascom, a center for the visual arts, 323 Franklin Rd., covered bridge entrance at the end of Main Street, Highlands. Through July 14 - "Highlands High School Ceramics Exhibit," featuring the best works of students who participated in The Bascom's High School art class collaboration project. Available to students in grades 9 through 12 at Highlands High School, this hands-on course has received positive reviews from students, and teaches far more than simply ceramics. Last August, each student made 10 bowls to donate to the Empty Bowls project, helping to reach the goal of 800 bowls. Through Sept. 1 - "Southern Lights". A chance meeting of four artists at a painting workshop has resulted in the creative collaboration that produced "Southern Lights," a colorful exhibition at The Bascom. Charlotte Foust, Martica Griffin, Krista Harris and Audrey Phillips have woven their various talents and styles together to form the selected compositions, based on their common Southern roots. Inspired by the distinct sense of place that defines the South, these four talented artists explore color and mark-making in their abstract expressionist art. Through Aug. 18 - "ReDress: Upcycled Style by Nancy Judd". Through this exhibit you'll realize that haute couture has truly come to Highlands. But these dramatic fashions are not what they appear: instead of real fur, jewels and luxe fabrics, they are made of such components as aluminum cans, tires and plastic grocery bags—even crime scene tape! Balcony Gallery, Through July 28 - "A Never Ending Stream: The Art of Linda Anderson". Recent paintings by Linda Anderson reveal how her bucolic scenes have matured and become more refined. Anderson's work continues to surge forth in a never-ending stream of pictures, stories and fantasies. This exhibit will display a selection of Anderson's early works along with more recent ones revolving around the things she loves. Ongoing - The vivid imagination of a child is the recurring theme for this gallery space and masterpieces by young artists from art classes at The Bascom, local non-profits and schools are on view. We believe in teaching the importance of thinking, creating, exploring and designing and in an effort to support these budding artists their works of art are displayed in changing exhibitions throughout the year. Drop in anytime and be inspired. Education Gallery, Ongoing - The Bascom offers our students and instructors an opportunity to display their creative works from workshops and classes. The perspectives of these talented individuals reveal self-expression, cultural awareness and technical discipline. These ongoing displays expose the viewer to the analysis, invention, exploration and decision making processes used by students during the development of ideas into a work of art. Bascom Campus, Ongoing - "Stick Works: Patrick Dougherty Environmental Sculpture". Internationally recognized sculptor Patrick Dougherty has constructed a monumental site-specific work using saplings as his construction material. Dougherty combines primitive construction techniques with his love of nature to build a one-of-a-kind sculpture on The Bascom campus. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-5pm. Contact: 828/526-4949 or at (www.thebascom.org).
