our national history, the evolution of American design and incredible artistry and craftsmanship. The exhibition provides audiences with a unique opportunity to see chair types that usually reside in private homes, withheld from public display. The American Chair Collection, the center of this exhibition, is a comprehensive private collection of iconic and historic chairs reaching back from the mid-1800s to pieces from today's studio movement. Mamie and Andrew Treadway, Jr. Gallery, Through Sept. 16 - "Born from Fire: American Studio Glass from the Collection," featuring more than 30 examples of glass made by leaders in the movement. In celebration of the 50th anniversary of the founding of the American Studio Glass Movement, the Columbia Museum of Art showcases this special exhibition. Wachovia Education Gallery, Through Aug. 5 - "Sit Right Down". National Art Honors Society students display three dimensional design skills by creating model chairs while students in CMA's One Room School House program use a print making technique to design upholstery fabric. These 3D and 2D works make for an engaging exhibition on furniture design! Different chair designs are available for your sitting pleasure - tell us which one is your favorite with our interactive survey. Design your own chair at our young artist station and have a seat on a toadstool and read "Goldilocks and the Three Bears" in our reading nook. Program generously sponsored by the Hilliard Family Foundation, Colonial Life and Carla and Dibble Manning. BB&T Focus Gallery, Ongoing - "Southern Traditions," will showcase the richness and diversity of the Museum's collection of furniture, ceramics, silver, basketry, sculpture and paintings by artists native to, or active in, South Carolina and its surrounding states. Among the works on view will be fine silver made by Charleston and Columbia silversmiths; a sweet grass basket by Mary Jackson (SC, born 1945); wood carvings by Edgar Alexander McKillop (NC, 1879-1950); and paintings by Charles Fraser (SC, 1782-1860), Xanthus Russell Smith (SC, 1839-1929), William Harrison Scarborough (SC, 1812-1871), William Aiken Walker (SC, 1838-1921), among others. Ray Taylor Fair Gallery, Ongoing - Featuring a new and permanent installation of its ancient art collection. The installation includes approximately 50 objects that introduce the major ancient civilizations from the Mediterranean and Near East. Examples of the earliest form of writing from 12th century B.C. Mesopotamia, are shown next to Egyptian scarabs and Greek painted vessels. The world of the ancient Romans is represented by 2nd century glass and bronze items and portrait sculpture. Many of these works have not been seen since the Museum moved to its location on Main Street in 1998. The collection has grown over the last several years with the donation of 12 fine Roman sculptures in 2002 from Pennsylvania collector Dr. Robert Y. Turner. Admission: Yes, but there is no admission charge on Sun. Hours: Tue.-Fri., 11am-5pm; first Fri., till 8pm; Sat., 10am-5pm & Sun., noon-5pm. Contact: 803/799-2810 or at (www.columbiamuseum.org).
