WORKS BY MICHELLE JARDINES
JULY 14 - AUGUST 20, 2017

Michelle Jardines is Cuban-American born in 1979 in Jersey City, NJ. Jardines is a first generation Cuban-American artist who has emerged in the wake of the influence of Gerhard Richter, Frida Kahlo and J.M.W Turner. Jardines is constantly refining her visual influences through multiple areas of contemporary art. Her Cuban heritage has led her to focus on abstract realism and abstract expressionism that are continuously evolving through her life experiences.
