Work by Carol Story

Through Aug. 3 - "Vintage and Classic," featuring watercolor paintings by Greer artist Patrick A. DeCrane, who will exhibit his newest collection of watercolor paintings of classic cars and buildings. Three artists from Upstate South Carolina have work in this exhibition. In keeping with his established style of using intense colors, there will be more than 18 paintings of cars and buildings, inspiring a new appreciation of architecture and vehicles from the past.

Through Aug. 3 - "Life In Color," featuring an exhibition of about 10 colorful paintings that reflect his joy in life, by Greenville artist Joseph Ambuhl. "My art is an outward expression of the passion inward I feel for life," he said. Whether he's painting florals, animals, people, landscapes, or abstracts, the bold use of color is the unifying factor for Ambuhl. His work is done in oils and acrylics and usually described as "fun and colorful." When people see his work, he wants them to "find the joy that I experience when creating this art!"

Aug. 6 - 31 - "Contemplating the Land," featuring works by Spartanburg artist, Carol Story. A reception will be held on Aug. 15, from 5-9pm. "This collection of landscapes marries my enjoyment of the painting experience and my love for the outdoors," the Co-op member said. "Many of these works are representative of my ramblings in Georgia, North and South Carolina - even our own Spartanburg County. Aug. 6 - 31 - "Paint to Print," featuring works by Gaffney artist Robin Childers, giving patrons a look at her prints of colorful abstracted flowers and shapes that are based on paintings and digital drawings. A reception will be held on Aug. 15, from 5-9pm. "This exhibit will be very characteristic of my work in general," Childers said. "I use personal drawings and paintings that are developed digitally to create the screens. I hope to show how an image changes as the medium changes - that the development of the images must be translated to fit the medium by artistic choices."

Aug. 6 - 31 - "Seeing Big," featuring works by Spartanburg artist, Thomas Koenig. The exhibit present more than 20 large-format photographs of extreme close-up of small things or details in other artists' creative work. A reception will be held on Aug. 15, from 5-9pm. "The idea for this exhibit is constructed around photographic images that show arrangements that in their native physical appearance are very small and we would normally not recognize as things of visual interest," Koenig said. Ongoing - Featuring a twenty thousand square foot facility offering affordable studio space and featuring works by 50 local artists. Come to see works from local artists, attend workshops, shop in the retail store, or meet any of the artists in their studios. Hours: Thur., 3-6pm; Sat., 10am-4pm; with extended hours on the 3rd Thur. of each month until 9pm for Spartanburg's Art Walk. Contact: 864 804-6501 or at (www.westmainartists.org).

So you're the Marketing Director of a visual arts organization, art museum, arts center, arts council or artist guild and you're wondering why you never see the exhibits presented at your facility included here. Maybe you're the owner of a commercial art gallery and you've never seen your exhibits included with others presented in your area. You might even be an individual artist who is having an exhibit in a non-profit space or commercial space and you don't see your exhibits included. My question to you is - "How long will you put up with that before you ask someone why that is the case?" If you're not included - it's your fault.
