Will Henry Stevens (1881 - 1949) was an American modernist and impressionist painter and naturalist. North Carolina Museum of History, 5 East Edenton Street, (between Salisbury and Wilmington Streets), Raleigh. Through Jan. 2, 2022 - "Are We There Yet? North Carolina's Variety Vacationland, 1930s-1970s". This photography exhibit will invite visitors to take a look back, at an era when tourism boomed thanks largely to a state-run marketing effort called "Variety Vacationland." The Variety Vacationland campaign was successful in creating a unified tourism industry in North Carolina from the 1930s to the 1970s by depicting our state as both modern and progressive, but with strong ties to its past. True to the Jim Crow era, however, most sites promoted were marketed (and accessible) only to White tourists; people of color were neglected and even exploited at times, an attitude this exhibit attempts to point out where possible. Ongoing - Featuring exhibits dealing with North Carolina's history as a theme. Sweet Tea & Cornbread Grill and Eatery, located on the R Level, open Mon.-Sat., from 11am to 3pm.
