Florence

Works by Liz Rundorff Smith

Florence County Museum, 111 West Cheves Street, across the street from the Francis Marion University Performing Arts Center, Florence. Ongoing - "Kindred Spirit: The Personal Worlds of William H. Johnson". William H. Johnson (1901 - 1970) was a man between worlds: raised in the rural South, but educated in New York; black, but his unknown father was white; American-born, but lived much of his adult life in Europe. This diverse heritage gave Johnson a unique perspective and insight, but at times it was also a difficult shadow which followed him as he traveled the world in search of his true artistic voice. Eventually, after many years away from his hometown of Florence, SC, Johnson returned to the United States. Although living in New York, his art began to focus almost entirely on the lives and experiences of African Americans in the rural South. "My travels taught me that an artist must live and paint in his own environment... This development shall continue for the rest of my life, and it is the painting of my people," said Johnson in 1941. Special Exhibits Gallery, Through Jan. 22, 2023 - "Steven F. Gately". This exhibit will focus on the work of artist Steven F. Gately (1946 - 2021), and feature a selection of paintings, mixed media assemblage, and works on paper created in the 50-year period approximately between 1970 and 2020. Gately was best known locally as the C.B. & Marlene Asking Professor of Art, and Coordinator of Visual Arts Programs at Francis Marion University, where he taught for 48 years. He received his MFA degree from Florida State University. Although an accomplished realist artist, the overall corpus of Gately's work can be described as formal abstraction, emphasizing foundational principals and elements to achieve modernist compositions. He was the subject of over twenty solo exhibitions during his lifetime. His work is represented in the collections of the Gibbes Arts Gallery, Charleston; The Columbia

Museum of Art, Columbia; the State Art Collection of South Carolina; and various other public and private collections. Community Gallery, Ongoing - This exhibit introduces visitors to the history of the museum and its formative collections. This gallery also exhibits the histories and diversity of the City of Florence, and the incorporated municipalities of Florence County. Additionally, the Community Gallery communicates the lives, stories and accomplishments of significant past and present citizens of Florence County and members of it's communities. This gallery is one of two permanent exhibit spaces designed by award winning exhibit design firm, HaleySharpe Design. Pee Dee History Gallery, Ongoing - This is the largest gallery space in the facility, comprising 3,300 sq. ft. of exhibit space. This permanent collections gallery occupies the entire second floor, east wing of the building. Artifacts are supported by historical images and narrative interpretation, giving a comprehensive introduction to the Pee Dee region from prehistory to the present. This gallery is one of two permanent exhibit spaces designed by award winning exhibit design firm, HaleySharpe Design. Waters Gallery, Through Aug. 5 - "Liz Rundorff Smith: Street Garden". Within the bold and expressive work of contemporary South Carolina artist Liz Rundorff Smith, lie quiet and subtle meanings. Although her compositions are abstract, their colors, textures, patterns and shapes combine to suggest things that are familiar, yet just out of reach - their deceptively formal simplicity conveying ideas of nostalgia, loss, and the imperfection of memory. Smith is the recipient of the 2022 Solo Exhibition Award, granted in collaboration with the Florence County Museum and Florence Regional Arts Alliance. She is a graduate of the College of Wooster and the University of Edinboro, continuing her studies in Europe before returning to receive residencies and fellowships in the United States. She is currently Director of Programs at the Center for Creative Arts in Greenville, SC. Admission: Free. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-5pm & Sun. 2-5pm. Contact: 843/676-1200 or visit (www.flocomuseum.org).

Hyman Fine Arts Center, Francis Marion University, Florence. Adele Kassab Art Gallery, Through Aug. 11 - "Doug McAbee: Even When It's Dark," featuring works and an installation by Doug McAbee. McAbee was taught the power of laughter and humor by his father and he seeks to channel that power into his creative work. With the understanding that art has the power to change how people think, McAbee has chosen to communicate positive and hopeful messages to his audience through his work. Hours: Mon.-Fri., 8:30am-5pm. Contact: Jessica Willis, Gallery Curator, at 843/661-1539 or at (<https://www.fmarion.edu/finearts/artgalleryseriescurrent/>).

Greenville County Museum of Art, 420 College Street, Greenville. Continuing on view - "But Wait -- There's More!" showcases our 2022 Art for Greenville acquisitions and includes works by David Drake, Jasper Johns, William H. Johnson, Jamie Wyeth, and Andrew Wyeth. If you'd like to learn more about how you can help us continue to grow our extraordinary collection, visit (gcma.org/support). Continuing on view - "Jasper Johns + Andrew Wyeth: Repeat Until Empty," featuring eight original works by Jasper Johns and eleven seldom exhibited paintings by Andrew Wyeth. Jasper Johns (born 1930) is the world's most critically acclaimed living artist. His work bridges the immediate post-World War II modernist trends of Surrealism and Abstract Expressionism with subsequent movements of the 1960s, including Pop art, Minimalism, and Conceptual art. Ongoing - "Soul Deep: African-American Masterworks," featuring 38 works by 20 artists. Ranging from a rare 1840 poem jar by enslaved potter David Drake (c. 1800 to c. 1870) to an evocative 2020 abstract painting by Frank Wimberley (born 1926), "Soul Deep" spans 180 years of American history. Ongoing - "Thomas Sills: Man of Color". Born to North Carolina sharecroppers in 1914, Thomas Sills took a circuitous path to achieve success as an artist. When he was only 11, he traveled by train from Raleigh to Harlem, where he stayed with an older brother. Over the years he worked a number of odd jobs, including theater doorman, church custodian, stevedore, and liquor deliveryman. Admission: Free. Hours: Wed.-Sat., 10am-6pm and Sun., 1-5pm. Contact: 864/271-7570 or at (www.gcma.org).
