Alfred D. Ward NDD, ATD, CGFTC (London), Juror

Alfred Ward, an accomplished English-born painter, jewelry smith and designer, received his education from Gravesend, Canterbury and Birmingham Colleges of Art. He has over 40 years of experience and leadership in higher education. He has taught and directed at numerous other colleges and creative institutes. Now in retirement, he is an Emeritus Professor for graduate programs in art at Winthrop, a program consultant for Design Technology in schools and universities, and continues to work as a studio artist in Rock Hill. In April 2011, he received Winthrop University's Medal of Honor in the Arts, which is the most prestigious award granted by the College of Visual and Performing Arts.

Special thanks to Ed and Shannon Emory for hosting this exhibit for the Artists' Guild of Spartanburg again this year! Catering provided by Palmetto Palate.
