

craft media to be granted the award and the first to study in Guyana. Three dimensional compositions in paper inspired by this research will fill the gallery. This renowned artist has been included in exhibitions internationally and nationwide including the Smithsonian American Art Museum in DC where two of her works can be found in their permanent collection. Through Sept. 25 - "Frank Stella: American Master". Frank Stella (b. 1936) is one of the great, living, internationally know American artists. He is a painter, printer and sculptor whose work follow an evolutionary path from a minimalist geometric style to a more dynamic expressionism. Working in series, he pioneered the shaped canvas and three-dimensional painted reliefs and was prolific in his development of printmaking and mixed media works. This presentaion will include works on loan from Florida-collector Preston Haskell and will feature monumental printed works from the "Moby Dick Series", "Imaginary Places Series", "Had Gadya Series" and "Exotic Bird Series" as well as paintings and sculpture. Stella began showing his work in New York during the late 1950s and emerged into critical recognition during the 1960s. In 1970, the Museum of Modern Art in New York City held a retrospective of his work, making Stella the youngest artist to receive such an honor. Through Sept. 17 - "Bascom Members Challenge". Each year The Bascom showcases the artistic talent of member artists to provide a snapshot of some of the most exciting work done by artists who also support our mission through membership. This year's challenge is to create a work of art inspired by a journey, imaginary or real! Join us in celebrating the artistic talents of our membrs. Sept. 10 - Dec. 3 - "Ben Owen: Ceramics". Born and educated in North Carolina, with educational travels in Australia, New Zealand and Japan, Owen has garnered a national reputation as artist, teacher and speaker. The Owen family immigrated from Great Britain in the mid 18th century to central North Carolina finding clay suitable for continuing their European pottery traditions and Ben still carries on the tradition today. Honored in our own state as a "North Carolina Living Treasure", Ben Owen has also received the Governor's Binsness Awards in the Arts and Humanities. Owen's pottery can be found in international and nationally recognized collections, periodicals and multiple books. Current works by renowned pottery Ben Owens will be on display in the Loft Gallery. Children's Gallery, Ongoing - The vivid imagination of a child is the recurring theme for this gallery space and masterpieces by young artists from art classes at The Bascom, local non-profits and schools are on view. We believe in teaching the importance of thinking, creating, exploring and designing and in an effort to support these budding artists their works of art are displayed in changing exhibitions throughout the year. Drop in anytime and be inspired. Education Gallery, Ongoing - The Bascom offers our students and instructors an opportunity to display their creative works from workshops and classes. The perspectives of these talented individuals reveal self-expression, cultural awareness and technical discipline. These ongoing displays expose the viewer to the analysis, invention, exploration and decision making processes used by students during the development of ideas into a work of art. Bascom Campus, Ongoing - "Stick Works: Patrick Dougherty Environmental Sculpture". Internationally recognized sculptor Patrick Dougherty has constructed a monumental site-specific work using saplings as his construction material. Dougherty combines primitive construction techniques with his love of nature to build a one-of-a-kind sculpture on The Bascom campus. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-5pm.
