Beaufort Area

Gallery @ ARTworks, home of the Arts Council of Beaufort County, 2127 Boundary St., near K-Mart, in Beaufort Town Center, Beaufort. Sept. 22 - Oct. 6 - "Sam Doyle Celebration". An exclusive opening reception will be held on Sept. 22, from 2-5pm. Special guests will share their first hand stories of the folk artist, Victoria Smalls will present an informative talk, and everyone will enjoy a buffet at the "Wellcome Table," inspired by one of the artist's paintings. Explains Mr. Bailey, a noted expert on Doyle's work: "He left little room for speculation in this poignant work, emphasizing with unambiguous clarity his hope that all races will one day join each other at "well" tables." The $25 tickets benefit ARTworks, the arts council of Beaufort, Port Royal and the Sea Islands. For tickets call 843/379-2787. Born in 1906 on St. Helena Island in the Lowcountry of South Carolina, Sam Doyle attended Penn School (now called Penn Center and a national historic landmark) and was a self-taught artist who, according to ARTworks friend, art collector, Gordon W. Bailey: "Fashioned his uniquely-styled personal portraits and tributes with evangelical enthusiasm, blending ancestral Gullah lore and his devout Baptist faith into a rich multicultural impasto." Ongoing - Featuring the work and creative processes of new and emerging artists. Hours: Mon.-Fri., 10am-5pm. Contact: 843-379-2787 or at (www.beaufortcountyarts.com).

Work by Sam Doyle

Gibbes Museum of Art, 135 Meeting Street, Charleston. Main Gallery, Through Sept. 15 - "People's Choice: A Community Curated

Exhibition". This exhibition seeks to engage members of the community, inviting all to stake a personal claim in Charleston's signature museum by voting for favorite works of art on the People's Choice website (www.gibbespeopleschoice.org). In an effort to gather a variety of voices and diverse opinions, we invited notable people from Charleston and beyond including Mayor Joseph P. Riley, Jr., renowned chef Nathalie Dupree, and event designer extraordinaire, Tara Guérard to share thoughts, opinions and feelings about art. We asked questions such as: Why is art important in your life? What is your first memory of art? and, why are museums important to you? The answers have been inspiring and refreshing. "This exhibition is unlike anything we've done before," says Executive Director Angela Mack. Sept. 27 - Jan. 5, 2014 - "Photography and the American Civil War," an exhibit organized by The Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York. This landmark exhibition brings together more than 200 of the finest and most poignant photographs of the American Civil War. Through examples drawn from The Metropolitan's celebrated holdings, complemented by important loans from public and private collections, the exhibition will examine the evolving role of the camera during the nation's bloodiest war. The "War between the States" was the great test of the young Republic's commitment to its founding precepts; it was also a watershed in photographic history. The camera recorded from beginning to end the heartbreaking narrative of the epic four-year war (1861-1865) in which 750,000 lives were lost. Rotunda Galleries, Through Sept. 15 - "The Spoleto Watercolors of Stephen Mueller and Carl Palazzolo, From the Collection of David and Carol Rawle," a program of Spoleto Festival USA and the Gibbes Museum of Art. This exhibition features extraordinary watercolor paintings by Stephen Mueller and Carl Palazzolo, created over a period of two decades when the artists visited Charleston during Spoleto season. Inspired by friendship, the rich culture of the Spoleto Festival, and the lush lowcountry environment, Mueller and Palazzolo found a perfect setting to explore the lyrical medium of watercolor in distinctive, though complementary, styles. The exhibition is made possible by the generous support of Gibbes, etc, the Medical University of South Carolina, The Albert Sottile Foundation, The Joanna Foundation, and South Carolina Bank and Trust. First, Second and Third Floor Galleries, Ongoing - "The Charleston Story". Drawn from the museum's permanent collection, this exhibition highlights significant people, places, and periods from Charleston's beginning as a British colony, through the American Revolution, the later ravages of the Civil War, and culminating today as a culturally diverse and dynamic community. Ongoing - "Hands On!" This exhibit features works of art selected from the Gibbes Museum of Art's touch collection. Museum Shop - Now offering the inventory of the Tradd Street Press, reproductions of works by Elizabeth O'Neill Verner among other exhibit related art objects. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-5pm & Sun., 1-5pm; closed Mon. Admission: Yes. Contact: 843/722-2706 or at (www.gibbesmuseum.org).
